OLD JAPANESE HOME OF DIET WAS BURNED

Two-story Wooden Structures Which Housed Parliament Went up in Smoke
Several Persons Injured; Large Modern Building Now Under Construction

Tokio, Sept. 18.—Fire this afternoon destroyed the Japanese Diet Buildings here, two-story wooden structures which housed the legislative branches of the Japanese Government. Several persons were injured. The loss is estimated at $1,000,000.

Many valuable documents were lost when a government library in one of the buildings was burned.

A big modern building is under construction to supplant the buildings burned, but as it will not be ready for several years it is understood a temporary structure will replace those destroyed.

The Diet Buildings were destroyed once before by fire. They were rebuilt thirty-four years ago.

REGISTRATION OF FEDERAL VOTERS ON SEPTEMBER 24

Citizens Not on Provincial List May Register During Last Week of Month

H. Alan Maclean District Returning Officer, Order-in-Council Proclaims

An opportunity will be afforded voters of the Victoria Electoral District to register on the Federal voters' list starting September 24, up to and including September 30, according to H. Alan Maclean, who, as returning officer for Victoria, received his appointment through an Order-in-Council in Ottawa yesterday. Mr. Maclean stated this morning that those eligible to vote, whose names do not appear on the provincial voters' list will have this opportunity of gaining their vote for the Federal election.

"The Victoria district has been rather thoroughly canvassed for the provincial election," said Mr. Maclean today, "and the total of voters in the five wards of the electoral district is fixed at the present time at 14,881. There may be a considerable number of names to add, however, and provision is being made whereby those may be obtained."

REGISTRATION STATIONS

The following list of registration stations, with the officers in charge, was given out by Mr. Maclean this morning: Ward One, 572 Johnson Street, A. T. Dick; Ward Two, 125 Quadra Street, Richard Smith and George Wyman; Ward Three, 712 Port Street, Henry Crocker and A. E. Harrison; Ward Four, 412-A Fort Street, George Morris and J. Murray; Ward Five, corner Michigan and Menzies Streets, G. H. Brown, F. H. Willis and N. R. Ballantine.

Facing Mr. Maclean, returning officer, is the task of appointing officers for the election. There are about sixty-five districts in the province, and officers to attend at each polling booth, including constables and others.

HOSPITALS TO BE BUILT AT AKLAVIK

Lieut.-Col. Leonard, St. Catharines, Ont., Provides For Aid For Eskimos

Ottawa, Sept. 18.—The Board of Management of the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada is in session here today. Yesterday afternoon the board dealt with the report of the executive committee and discussed various phases of the work and the problems related to it. It was announced that total contributions for the year from the Canadian churches to the society was $579,362.

Reference was made to a donation of $10,000 by Lieut.-Col. Leonard of St. Catharines, Ont., toward the cost of the erection of a hospital at Aklavik, in the diocese of Mackenzie River, for the Eskimos to the Mackenzie River Delta. A vote of thanks was accorded to Col. Leonard.

VOTES FOR INDIANS LIVING IN AUSTRALIA

Melbourne, Sept. 18.—The House of Representatives has passed the bill giving natives of British India, resident in Australia, the full electoral rights of citizenship. The bill has already passed the Senate committee.

MEIGHEN'S ATTACK ON WEST LOOMS UP AS BIG FEATURE OF ELECTION CAMPAIGN HERE

With Conservative leaders here and on the mainland attempting to pooh-pooh its importance altogether, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen's Halifax attack on the "utterly indefensible" freight rate concessions already granted to Western Canada, promises to become one of the outstanding features of the Federal campaign in British Columbia.

The formal statement of R. H. Pooley, provincial Conservative leader in British Columbia, that Mr. Meighen did not mean anything unfavorable to the West when he attacked Western rate reductions was regarded as a blunder in the Conservative camp.

On that account, no further statement on the matter has been issued and the Conservative Party here is hoping that its leader's frank declaration against the West will be forgotten.

That the reaction caused by the Meighen speech is rolling up like a snowball was indicated by the action of Hon. H. H. Stevens of Vancouver in attempting to counteract it when he spoke at his nominating convention Wednesday. Mr. Stevens sought to show that Liberals were not doing Mr. Meighen justice when they interpreted his speech about "utterly indefensible" concessions as being unfavorable to the West. Like Mr. Pooley, he called this interpretation of the speech a Liberal campaign trick. In Vancouver Mr. Meighen's speech caused a sensation and his utterance on freight rates will be echoed and re-echoed during the campaign.

PROTESTS RATE CUTS

Meanwhile, G. G. McGeer, Government rate counsel, has wired again to the Railway Commission, protesting against the rate reductions recently put into effect by Canadian railways. These reductions are too small and not in accordance with the Railway Commission's equalization order. Mr. McGeer holds, but he has received no further word on the subject from the Capital.

Possibility of a Labor candidate entering the race is being marked by the local branch of the Canadian Labor Party which will hold a meeting Wednesday in Harmony Hall, Fort Street, to consider the advisability of placing a candidate in the field. Decision to hold this meeting will be made at the meeting of the executive committee of the party, which will be held at the residence of E. S. Woodward, that would not run here under present conditions.

NOW INQUIRING INTO PURCHASE OF BEER

Liquor Commissioner Considers Cutting Off New Westminster Brewery

Vancouver, Sept. 18.—No object can be gained by discussing the matter before the public," said Liquor Commissioner Hugh Davidson, who arrived here yesterday to investigate the situation which has arisen owing to the refusal of the Liquor Control Board to purchase further supplies of beer from the Westminster Brewery Limited.

This action was taken after the brewery had allegedly supplied beer for delivery to Joseph Alvaro of Vancouver, "agent" according to an official of the firm, for Fred Johnson of Seattle.

The order will stand until the brewery agrees to abide by its agreement with the board, said Mr. Davidson.

CASE IN COURT

The commissioner said he was not deeply concerned over the prosecution in Burnaby arising from a seizure of beer from the Westminster Brewery.

Mr. Davidson also said he was not concerned with the investigation of the inspectors' department, as that department now came under the provincial police. There will be another sitting of the investigation next Wednesday before Walter Owen, Assistant Superintendent of Provincial Police, with A. V. Pines of the Attorney-General's Department in attendance.

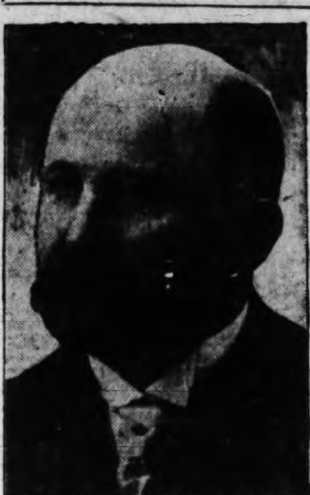

Japan Syndicate To Exploit Siberia

Tokio, Sept. 18.—Viscount Shintaro Goto today confirmed reports of the organization of a 30,000,000-yen syndicate for exploitation of Siberian resources. Viscount Goto will proceed to Moscow shortly to complete negotiations with the Soviet Government.

State of Siege In Bolivia Now

Buenos Aires, Sept. 18.—A dispatch to La Nacion from La Paz, Bolivia, says a state of siege has been declared in the Departments of La Paz, Oruro and Cochabamba. The dispatch asserts the order for a state of siege was issued after the discovery of a serious conspiracy.

PROHIBITION AGENTS' SIGHT IS MENACED

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 18.—At least six federal prohibition agents are under treatment for partial loss of sight or violent illness from sampling bootleg liquor, as required by the Government to get evidence before making a raid. The new peril became known yesterday when J. W. Smith collapsed after testing before a United States commissioner in cases he had made.

RAIL BOARD IS ASKED FOR CLEAR RULING

Vancouver, Sept. 18.—Replying to a message sent Tuesday evening by G. G. McGeer, K.C., British Columbia counsel in the grain rates case, in which he declared the reported rates filed by the railways made a "complete mockery" of the commission's order, Hon. H. A. McKenney, chairman of the Board of Railway Commissioners, replied to-day as follows:

"Railway claim the new rates are in conformity with board's order. Have notified them all of your complaint, which may be spoken to here September 29."

Acknowledging receipt, Mr. McGeer further wrote to the chairman: "Have asked whether or not Calgary-Vancouver rate should be eighteen cents. Respectfully submit grain men here are entitled to know definitely what your order means. Railways have construction that no one can understand. On its face, interpretation of your order by railways appears to be a complete evasion."

Early this afternoon no reply had been received to the latest message.

DISARMAMENT PLANS DEBATED

Geneva, Sept. 18.—Australia and Italy to-day backed Great Britain's opposition to the immediate creation of a special League of Nations or general disarmament conference.

Their spokesmen, addressing the committee on disarmament of the League Assembly, held such preparations should not be inaugurated until security is attained.

TELLS OF AID GIVEN TO BUILD UP THE WEST

Hon. J. H. King, Addressing Vancouver Laurier Club, Says Real Progress Seen

Liberal Government of Canada Has Helped Greatly With Coast Development

Vancouver, Sept. 18.—"Western Development" was the subject of an informative address given by Hon. J. H. King, Federal Minister of Public Works, before a largely-attended public luncheon given today by the Laurier Club of Vancouver.

"With the railway freight rate equalization now taking place and with our united immigration policy of co-operation between the Government and the two railways, there is a tremendous future development ahead," he said.

"We intend pushing on the requirements of Vancouver Harbor and other Pacific ports wherever they can serve the purposes of Canadian trade in order to keep pace with the great expansion which is destined to take place all through the West under the policies which have been inaugurated by the King Government."

COPPER INDUSTRY

Dr. King started the copper bounty point started in 1922 had had the effect of leading to the refinement of Canadian copper at Trail.

"Six hundred tons of that copper was last year manufactured in Eastern Canada into copper products," he said amid applause.

I am of the opinion also, he added, that we have reached the point where an iron and steel industry can be successfully operated in British Columbia, and I am prepared to support any reasonable and fair proposal advanced for furthering such a development."

Dr. R. E. McKechnie presided at the luncheon. Dr. King was given an enthusiastic ovation as he arose to speak.

Mr. King Expected to Address Meetings in British Columbia Coast Cities; His Series of Election Speeches West of Great Lakes is Set to Begin in Winnipeg October 5.

Winnipeg, Sept. 18.—Premier King will start his Western tour in Winnipeg October 5, according to tentative arrangements announced from Liberal headquarters here. The Premier, it is expected, will go through to the British Columbia coast. The itinerary will be announced soon.

Plans for opposing Mr. Meighen in the constituency of Portage la Prairie have been practically completed. The Liberal convention will be held in that constituency October 1.

ADMIRALTY TO USE B.C. FIR IN WARSHIPS

Halifax, Sept. 18.—That conditions throughout Canada were improving was a statement made by Premier King in addressing a large Federal election campaign here last night.

"There is more brightness on the horizon than there has been for many a day," he said.

Mr. King, dealing with immigration, said Mr. Meighen, Conservative leader, had been twisting facts. He referred to the statement reported to have been made by Mr. Meighen in Halifax a couple of days ago that the Government had spent $2,500,000 to bring 110,000 persons into the country, of whom about one-half had since gone out of the country.

At the same meeting Senator Robertson was reported to have said, the Premier proceeded, that 10,000 had come in and 115,000 Canadians had left.

A BIG DIFFERENCE
"Notice the difference in the figures," said Mr. King. "But leaving that aside, Mr. Meighen says we spent $2,500,000. I had already pointed out publicly to Mr. Meighen that in the figure of $2,500,000 was included $1,000,000 spent on the Wembley Exhibition. I had already pointed out to Mr. Meighen that his statement was untrue. Yet he comes here and repeats it to me. I ask you, is that fair to you?"

"I challenge Mr. Meighen to repeat that statement."

"This talk about no immigration to Canada and migration to the United States has a political propaganda flavor about it," said the Premier, adding that the tide of migration was now from the United States to Canada.

SENATE REFORM

The Prime Minister said he doubted if any Government had greater difficulties to face than the present Government had encountered. In the Senate the Government had been met with a hostile majority.

"The time has come when the Senate should be reformed," said the Premier. "The time has come when (Concluded on page 2)

DOYLE SAYS WORLD NEAR CATASTROPHE

Spirits For Three Years Have Given Warnings Through Him, He Declares

He is Unable Closely to Describe Coming Great Three-year Disaster

London, Sept. 18.—Everyone is warned by the spirit world through the medium of the late Arthur Doyle that a great catastrophe hangs over the world. Sir Arthur says he has been receiving messages from the spirit world for the last three years to this effect, and that lately they have become so pressing he feels it necessary to make them public.

He asserts the suffering and destruction which will result are to be taken as a chastening for the evils of to-day.

The nature of the impending disaster is so vague that Sir Arthur is unable to specify it, but he says the chastening will last three years.

Sir Arthur declares Great Britain will escape from the catastrophe more lightly than almost every other nation. Why, he does not say.

Death Sentence In New Brunswick

St. Andrews, N.B., Sept. 18.—Alfred Arsenault, aged eighteen, was sentenced to-day by Judge Byrne to be hanged January 19 for the murder of Alpheus Hannell Packer, aged seventy, at Bethel, Charlotte County, on May 8 last.

Packer, a stenographer, was found beaten to death in his yard on May 8 last. A beech club, bloodstained, lay nearby. Arsenault was arrested as he was tramping towards the United States border.

R. R. McDonald, counsel for the prisoner, said he would apply for a new trial.

BIG DEPARTMENT STORE WAS OPENED FOUR YEARS AGO
Hudson's Bay Company Celebrates Anniversary With One-Day Sale

To-morrow the Hudson's Bay Company will celebrate the fourth anniversary of the opening of its Victoria store with a great one-day sale, full particulars of which will be found in the advertising columns.

The company greatly appreciates the wonderful support received during the last twelve months, and as its customers of the determination to adhere strictly to those high standards of merchandising which have made the store worthy of the good will and confidence of the residents of Victoria and Vancouver Island.

Four years ago when the store first opened its doors to the public, there were those who thought the location was too far ahead of the times; that it was too big for the needs of the city. Events have proved otherwise.

As an indication of the substantial growth of the store's business and its readiness to be of still greater service, new departments have been added and extensive alterations effected to provide necessary additional selling space. During the last twelve months the company has opened a thoroughly modern fresh meat department and inaugurated a post office service. Both of these additions have already proved immensely popular with the public.

As an indication of better conditions prevailing in Victoria and Vancouver Island generally, a substantial increase of business has been noted particularly in the home-furnishing sections. Quite recently the store management has found it necessary to increase very considerably the floor space in the furniture department. Further improvements and extensions are being planned to take care of the continually increasing volume of business.

The Hudson's Bay Company cordially invites the public to participate in this one-day anniversary celebration by taking advantage of unusual offerings. In anticipation of one of the busiest days of the whole year, the management has secured the services of many extra sales people, so that patrons may be assured of prompt attention.

Winnipeg, Sept. 18.—Mr. Meighen, Federal Conservative leader, is to speak here October 1.

ELECTION COSTS $2,000,000
Ottawa, Sept. 18.—The Federal general election, the campaigns preceding which are now in progress, are estimated to cost the country $2,000,000. Appropriation for the necessary outlay is a statutory provision of the Dominion Elections Act.

The carrying out of the Act is under the direction of the Chief Electoral Officer, while the executive administration of the financial outlay is under the Auditor-General.

There are about 242 returning officers. Their pay is dependent upon the number of the constituencies and the number of polls.

Other large items of cost are printing, stationery and expenses in connection with the registration of voters.

HUMPHREY NOMINATED
Nelson, B.C., Sept. 18.—L. W. Humphrey, member for Kootenay West, in the late House of Commons, was nominated yesterday to contest the riding in the coming Federal election for the Farmer-Labor party, which he now represents. Mr. Humphrey was chosen by acclamation.

SCANT REMNANT OF OLD SALMON RUN IN FRASER
Alarmingly Few Fish Reach Upper Stretches of Waterway, Babcock Finds

"Big Year" of Salmon Cycle Is Pitifully Small, Expert Reports

The salmon run on the Fraser River, once the most famous fishery waterway in the world, is but a remnant this year of its former size, according to John P. Babcock, Deputy Commissioner of Fisheries, who returned to his office today after his annual inspection of the Fraser system.

The number of sockeye salmon that reached the upper Fraser this season was larger than for some years, said Mr. Babcock, "possibly larger than in 1913, but for that blockade in Hells Gate canyon in 1913. But for that blockade this would have been a big year on the Fraser. The sockeye which reached the headwaters this year; none of the remnants of the former great run, the run that formerly made the Fraser famous, the most famous of all salmon producing rivers. But a scant remnant now exists of the millions of sockeye which formerly spawned every fourth year in each of the great runs of the Fraser. The numbers that reached those lakes this season were too small to make more than a visible impression in any section, and the product of their spawning will not materially increase the run to the Fraser four years hence. A few hundred sockeye may have entered Quenneville Lake this year; none were observed entering that great lake, but a few were reported in the headwaters of the Horsefly River, the main spawning tributary—the first time in three years that they have been seen there."

INDIANS QUIT FISHING
The sockeye run to Chilco Lake was also small, though a little larger than in the recent years. The Chinook Indians at their three principal fishing stations caught less than five hundred, where in former big years they averaged thousands.

To be observed, however, that comparatively few Indians engaged in fishing. The run there has been so small since 1913 that the Indians have abandoned the practice of fishing; their catches were too small to warrant the effort.

Small numbers of sockeye are reported to have reached the waters north and west of Port George. The number reported taken by the Indians was less than five hundred.

"The number of sockeye and springs that reached Hells Gate canyon this season was somewhat larger than four years ago and larger than in several recent years. That area is now closed to fishing by Indians and the fish that reached there passed through without more than the customary number of reported catches."

"The river's channel at Hells Gate has not been fully restored since the rock-slide of 1912 and that conditions there are not favorable for the passage of salmon are unwarranted. They are not made by men who were familiar with conditions previous to 1912. The sockeye that have reached Hells Gate since 1913 have had no more difficulty in passing through Hells Gate than was experienced by those that reached there previous to 1913. None of the present critics of present conditions in the canyon were familiar with conditions previous to the blockade of 1912. They do not know whereof they speak."

WATER VARIES
"The volume of water passing through Hells Gate varies greatly—sometimes as much as sixty feet between high and low water. At certain stages salmon have, and always have had, difficulty in getting through the gate. During almost every season the fish are at times delayed for a day or two at a time, but all eventually get through. Several times this year the water held up for short periods, but there was no serious delay. Conditions there are under close observation throughout the season. Major Motherwell and Engineers McHugh and Hunt of the Dominion Fisheries Department, have been and are paying special attention to conditions there. Engineer McHugh directed the work of removing the rock and restoring the channel and has made a special study of conditions ever since the 1912 disaster. Scott has been constantly on guard ever since 1912, and I have been familiar with conditions in Hells Gate since 1902, and we are all satisfied that the fish that now reach there have no more difficulty in negotiating the passage than was experienced by those that reached there previous to 1913. None of the present critics of present conditions in the canyon were familiar with conditions previous to the blockade of 1912. They do not know whereof they speak."

STORMS IN ONTARIO CAUSE MAN'S DEATH AND LOSS

STORM AT OTTAWA
Ottawa, Sept. 18.—More than half an inch of rain fell during a heavy electrical storm which passed over Ottawa and its environs between 8 and 9 a.m. to-day. The gauge at the Dominion Experimental Farm on the Ottawa river recorded an inch of rain fell in that period. The storm was heavy, but no particular damage was reported in the district beyond a temporary stoppage of the street car system through a short circuit at a sub-station.

BULLETS STOPPED TWO RUN RUNNERS
Emerson, Man., Sept. 18.—Stopped by a volley of bullets from the rifles of United States customs and border control officers, James Harrison and James Dickerson of Omaha, Neb., are under arrest on charges of running liquor into the United States.

When the driver of the car failed to respond to the challenge of the border guards, the officers opened fire. Thirty-five bullets found their marks, without wounding the occupants.

MIDDLE COURSE
In justification of the position of the Federal Government, Dr. King asked his audience: "What would you do if you had the Tories on one hand talking high tariff and blue ruin? You'd take the middle course, as we did—the middle course by which we reduced the debt."

As for his actions as the representative of British Columbia in the Cabinet, the speaker said he was not afraid of the judgment of the Province because of things accomplished.

EXPORTATION OF GRAIN
Development of the port of Vancouver had made possible the export of 54,000,000 bushels of grain in 1924, and the elevators built had given the farmers of Alberta and Saskatchewan the advantage of the short haul.

Development of the port of Prince Rupert was amply justified, and some day, said he, that port would be the outlet for the Peace River country.

"With improvement of New Westminster, more than 120 ocean-going ships would load at that port this year."

VICTORIA'S GROWTH
Victoria was also seeing development, meaning much to this country. "The King government," declared the speaker, "is trying to be a Canadian government, and thus there is development of all ports."

"When the Government took office it found the Meighen Government was failing in its last year in balancing the budget by $50,000,000. It reduced that figure in the first year to $24,000,000, and in 1923 produced a surplus of $24,000,000. What to do with the surplus became a problem. The Government solved this by reducing the duties on implements of production in the basic industries of forestry, agriculture and fishing."

AMOUNT GREW
"In his last budget Mr. Robb, Acting Finance Minister, estimated a surplus of $5,000,000, and the Cabinet was lately informed this had grown to $11,000,000."

"I appeal to the women whether the one who had changed a deficit into a surplus was the better housekeeper," said Dr. King.

"An increase in the public debt to $2,400,000,000," he continued, "was found by the Government on taking office, of which a large part was attributable to the burden assumed in taking over the Canadian Northern, Grand Trunk Pacific and Grand Trunk Railways."

"The number of mistakes, the railway babies were left on our doorstep. I want you clearly to understand, a Conservative Government had taken over these railways."

AMALGAMATED ROADS
"When the Liberals received them they were operated as two roads, with two presidents and staffs. The Government amalgamated them and searched the railway world till it found the man to whom it entrusted the management. The Government is responsible for Thornton."

"From an operating surplus of $2,000,000 under the Conservatives, Sir Henry brought the combined surplus to an operating surplus of $30,000,000 in 1923. Last year it was down to a meagre deficit of $1,000,000, because of the smaller crop."

"If the people of Canada will just carry on, under the Government's policies, both the Canadian National and the Canadian Pacific will be prosperous."

TO MAKE CHOICE
Dr. King further said that one of the most important elections in Canadian history was approaching. The voters had before them three possible courses:

They could accept the policies of Mr. Meighen—the policy Sir John Macdonald made for Canada in 1873, the policy of the Western Canada; or the people could adopt the policy of Mr. Forke, on the prairies, which was a class policy; or they could accept the policies of Mackenzie King in developing national resources by cheapening the costs of production in basic industries, so roads would not only be produced more cheaply for the home market, but would be placed in a position to compete in the markets of the world.

REPORT FUGITIVES SEEN IN VANCOUVER IS NOT CREDITED
Police do Not Believe Men Seen Were Three Who Broke Jail in Seattle

Vancouver, Sept. 18.—A newspaper reporter told the police here to-day he last night had seen three of the men who escaped from the jail in Seattle early this week. The reporter, Ployd Richardson and Ed Watson, the police, however, expressed doubt the men were the Seattle fugitives. Ward Richardson and Watson are not wanted by Canadian authorities. Two Nanaimo bank robbery suspects who escaped at the same time are rumored to have been seen at Everett, Washington.

The reporter told the police he had ridden with the three men in a street car for several blocks in the downtown section about midnight.

When the three men got off the car the reporter summoned police officers, who quickly responded and searched the vicinity in which they were said to have disappeared, without success.

The trio seemed to be unfamiliar with the city, according to the reporter, who said one of the men carried a heavy black bag. The car conductor said another carried a revolver.

JAILER SUSPENDED
Seattle, Sept. 18.—King County Sheriff Starwich to-day indefinitely suspended Jailer Dave Morgan for failure to pull a lever in the county jail when six prisoners escaped Tuesday. The lever would have sounded an alarm at police headquarters.

The outlaws are still at large.

ANNOUNCED BY REMARKS
E. C. Dalley, attorney for Alvah Kilbourn, one of the six fugitives, issued a statement at Walla Walla, carrying a rebuke of Sheriff Starwich, and hurling a deft at the official's statement after the break that "the guns used in the escape may have been handed to Kilbourn while he was in court on arraignment last Friday."

Dalley's statement, telegraphed from Walla Walla, reads: "My home is in Everett and I was defending Alvah Kilbourn. I was as much surprised when I read of his escape as I could be. I was in court when Kilbourn was arraigned and when Starwich says he thinks he (Kilbourn) had 'legal aid' he thereby intends to reflect on me."

SEARCH NEEDED
"It is a reflection on his office if prisoners are returned to jail without any kind of a shake-down, but would disclose anything as large as a gun and the public can rest assured the guns were not taken into jail that way. I have never before been accused of misconduct with a prisoner."

Starwich declined to comment on Dalley's statement further than to declare he had not accused Dalley, but had merely pointed out the possibility of Kilbourn having obtained the weapons from an aid during his appearance in Judge Everett Smith's courtroom.

A dispatch from Everett, Washington, last night said: "A new and puzzling clue developed here to-day in the hunt for Alvah Kilbourn and Joe Ward, King County prison fugitives. Two rough youths, one of whom answered the description of Kilbourn, called at the 'Aussie' undertaking parlors shortly before noon and demanded from Mrs. Rosamond Jones, attendant, the clothes belonging to George Jones, killed in the Bethel bank robbery. The pair told Mrs. Jones they would be back in ten minutes and that she had better have Jones' clothes ready to turn over. They did not return, Mrs. Jones told the police."

Governor Brett Returns to Alberta

Vancouver, Sept. 18.—Dr. R. G. Brett, Lieutenant-Governor of Alberta, left for the East last night after a holiday of two weeks here and in Victoria. He will spend a day at Banff, en route to Edmonton. Lieutenant-Governor Brett's term of office will expire next month and he expressed himself as quite unconcerned as to whether it might be renewed.

"I have been on the job nine years now and would just as soon be relieved from further responsibility. I think I have done my share," he said.

Chemainus News

Special to The Times
Chemainus, Sept. 18.—Sept. 17 the Porter Chapter, I.O.D.E., held its first of a series of fortnightly socials yesterday, September 18, at the home of Mrs. Lewis G. Hill. The first donations of "groceries," etc., which the chapter has decided to send monthly to a worthy old couple resident here, were brought in. There was a splendid and varied collection, and the chapter's grateful thanks are due to those kind friends outside the chapter who sent generous donations. During the afternoon, Mrs. Hill served a very delectable tea. Fourteen members were present, who were Mrs. T. H. Porter, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. W. W. Southin, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Bonde, Mrs. Work, Mrs. H. Southin, Mrs. Gregson, Mrs. J. Russell Robinson, Mrs. A. V. Porter, Mrs. F. A. Reed, Miss Marian Porter, Miss Mary Robinson and Miss White.

The first Chemainus girl guide committee resumed their monthly meeting Tuesday. They met in St. Michael's parish room. Six members were present, Mrs. Walter Porter presiding. It was decided to change the guides meeting day from Saturday to Thursday, and transportation was arranged for the Saltair Guides. The meetings for the future will commence at 3.15 p.m. This arrangement has met with the approval both of guides and guides. It was decided to swell the committee funds by having a whist drive early in October, the date to be set later. Each member will be responsible for one table. More Brownie caps are to be provided before Winter, and Miss Dwyer, Brown Owl, will try to obtain one of the blackboards discarded by the public school. The guides were unable to attend the Cowichan Fall Fair at Duncan this week, owing to Friday being a school day. Those present at the meeting were Mrs. Walter Porter, Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Fraser, Mrs. Fulton, Mrs. Spurling and Miss Dwyer.

Duncan News

Special to The Times
Duncan, Sept. 18.—The board of directors of the King's Daughters' Hospital held their monthly meeting on Wednesday. The chairman, W. H. Elkington, and vice-chairman, T. A. Wood were re-elected. Committees appointed were: House committee, Miss Wilson, Madames Elkington, Whitton, Hird and Price; finance, Mrs. J. H. Whitton and T. A. Wood; garden, Mrs. Elkington and Mrs. Price. Mrs. H. H. Hardie, provincial president of the King's Daughters, gave a very comprehensive report of the proceedings at the annual convention of the I.C. Hospitals Association held at Nanaimo. Mrs. Hardie and E. W. Carr-Hilton were thanked by the board for their reports.

The House committee's report read by Miss Wilson stated how necessary a Potter-Bucky diaphragm apparatus was to the equipment of the X-ray. Mr. Monk, the radiographer, was present. The committee reported how helpful this would be. He gave the cost at $350. The drainage system is again causing the board a lot of anxiety. J. L. Hird is to be asked to prepare a plan of all septic tanks, box drains and grease traps. The addition to Men's Ward, the building for a laboratory and a new bath-room are now about complete, and will be of great service. The matron's report showed 98 patients treated, with 884 days' treatment average per day 31.7. There were 27 medical and 21 surgical cases, 6 births and 3 deaths, 43 X-ray pictures.

Miss Black stated the hospital was very much in need of fracture appliances. The local doctors are now giving very useful lectures to the pupil nurses. The financial statement showed receipts amounting to $2,818.50, and payments $2,224.58. The turnover came to $2,722. Accounts passed for payment totalled $3,963.67. Those present at the meeting were W. H. Elkington, chairman; Mrs. L. H. Hardie, Mrs. H. A. S. Morley (Victoria), Madames W. H. Elkington, J. H. Whitton, J. L. Hird, F. Price, E. H. Fry, Miss Wilson, W. H. Napier, secretary, and E. W. Carr-Hilton, treasurer.

At a meeting held on Wednesday evening the following gentlemen were appointed as delegates to the Conservative convention, which is to be held in Duncan on Saturday for the purpose of nominating their representative for the Nanaimo riding: Messrs. W. Dwyer, R. M. Smith, T. Pitt, D. C. Hils, H. W. May, D. Nicholson, D. Cochrane, A. Newcome, J. Lowe and F. Thicke. W. Dwyer moved, and O. T. Smythe seconded a very hearty vote of confidence in C. H. Dickie, the present member, and appreciation of the work he has done, and the delegates were instructed to support Mr. Dickie at the convention.

DEBT SETTLEMENT NOW IS PREDICTED

Paris Matin Says Speech by Churchill Indicates French-British Progress

Paris, Sept. 18.—The Matin to-day declares that a recent speech in Birmingham by Winston Churchill, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, forebodes complete debt settlement between France and Britain.

Finance Minister Caillaux's insistence upon the doctrine of contingent liability alone prevented the conclusion of such an agreement with Mr. Churchill at their recent conference in London, the paper continues.

M. Caillaux accepted Mr. Churchill's proposal that France pay annually $15,000,000 for sixty-two years, but only conditionally on Germany paying France, because he held the internal debts must be inter-dependent and that unless that premise were admitted, the negotiations would get nowhere.

MINISTERS CONVINCED
The newspaper understands Mr. Churchill personally shared this view, but that his fellow Cabinet members did not. The Chancellor now believes, has succeeded in convincing his colleagues that it would be an injustice to oblige France alone to bear the consequences of a possible default by Germany, for that, it adds, is the only explanation of his speech.

Mr. Churchill was quoted in press dispatches as saying in his Birmingham speech: "Our main idea has been a settlement. We have not sought to be judged upon this question by our ability to exact the last penny. We think it our duty to consider not only the capacity of the debtors to pay, but the circumstances in which the debts were incurred. We believe it also to be in the interests of Britain to promote general appeasement and revival on the Continent of Europe."

Boy Who Fell Under Locomotive Died of Injuries

Vancouver, Sept. 18.—After hours of suffering, David Liddle, who had an arm and a leg severed when he fell beneath the wheels of a locomotive at North Bend while stalling a ride, died in a hospital here late yesterday afternoon. David was one of the three youngsters who escaped from the Provo Industrial School near Edmonton, B.C., en route to Edmonton.

Despite his terrible injuries, the boy remained conscious until death.

Ignorance of Many U.S. Students Shown

New York, Sept. 18.—"Ma" Ferguson, Governor of Texas, is identified in the minds of some United States school students as President of Mexico and also as Babe Ruth. "Teapot Dome" is thought by other students to be a building in Washington. And still others confuse Mussolini with "Batting King" Al Johnson and "Billy" Sunday.

These were among the answers given by United States High School, College and University students in the annual tests on current history conducted by The Review of Reviews, in the examination papers of 1,469 students scattered throughout the country.

"The question may well be raised," the report said, "whether we are supplementing the headline reading the picture newspaper, the picture supplement and movie news with serious study in the classroom to an adequate degree."

THREE VANCOUVER CHINESE ARRESTED

Vancouver, Sept. 18.—After watching the suspects on several consecutive nights, police shortly after midnight arrested three Chinese on Pender Street and charged them with molesting women.

BONAR LAW CAIRN EVENT DREW THROG

Monument in Memory of Late
British Premier Unveiled
in New Brunswick

Reston, N.B., Sept. 18.—The little Kent County town of Reston was in gala attire yesterday at the unveiling of the Bonar Law Memorial Cairn at the birthplace of the late British statesman. From far and near had gathered leaders in the political life of this country to pay tribute to the man who attained the highest administrative position in the British Isles.

The ceremony took place under a large willow tree, by the roadside, where a platform draped in flags had been erected. In front stood the cairn, covered with the Union Jack. Lieutenant-Governor W. F. Todd of New Brunswick declared Bonar Law had ever retained a warm spot in his heart for his birthplace and for Canada. His efforts had always been directed toward knitting the Dominion together to the end that the British Empire might remain the queen of empires forever.

He tendered to Richard Law, son of the late British Premier, the best wishes of the people of New Brunswick and requested him to unveil the cairn.

DESIRED APPROVAL
Richard Law, in accepting the cairn, said that while his father had accepted the limitations of a politician's life without desiring its recognition, he had always appreciated and desired the approval of his own people.

Right Hon. Arthur Meighen referred to the appropriate suggestion which had resulted in the erection of a memorial to New Brunswick's most eminent son.

Others who attended the ceremony were Premier Baxter of New Brunswick, Premier Stewart of Prince Edward Island, and Hon. A. B. Copp, Secretary of State of Canada.

BODY IDENTIFIED
Vancouver, Sept. 18.—Burnaby police yesterday identified as A. F. Pitout, aged forty, of no fixed abode, the man whose body was found Wednesday night on the interurban tracks between New Westminster and Maple. The hands lay across the rails and the fingers had been severed.

ROACH EXPLAINS
HOW KINDNESS
REDEEMED REX

Cruelty to animals in motion pictures is about as common as fresh water in the ocean. Hal Roach, author and producer of "Black Cyclone," the Pathe photoplay starring the princely black stallion, Rex, at the Dominion Theatre to-day, and one of the foremost sponsors of the clean type of screen entertainment, delivered a speech in Los Angeles not long ago in which he discussed the question at length.

In it he spoke directly to various women present at the gathering, who had investigated the question of cruelty to animals in the film industry.

The impression he made was extraordinarily strong. By taking up each question brought before him and giving facts and details concerning both sides of it he convinced the representative body that the worries about the dumb actors of filmland were chiefly caused by vague reports and rumors which could never be traced down to actual fact.

But, aside from this refutation by facts of the charge of cruelty, his greatest point in hand was the story of Rex, the four-legged star of "Black Cyclone." When he told of the reclamation and regeneration, through right treatment, of the animal famous in Colorado as "Casey Jones," a killer of men and supposed to be absolutely untamable, the opposite extreme to cruelty was pictured graphically. Taking an animal that is naturally good-natured and governing and keeping it so by fair handling is one virtue, and commendable; but, taking a horse who has nothing but hatred in his heart for men and the temperament of the true wild horse, and making him amenable to direction and safe use with human beings is a greater one.

Rex was originally the perfect type of the horse that kills; wild, unsuited to such training as ranchers were willing to give him and not afraid of any man. To-day he remains unafraid of any man, and he will submit to being ridden by but very few. He is essentially a wild horse, but he knows that the men around him in the making of pictures under Fred Jackson's direction, with Carl Morrison as trainer, all love him and would give him his freedom if he would be as happy and safe as he is on the ranch, where he is allowed to run as he will. They understand him and he senses it, and, in over a year of this new phase of life, he has not felt the impulse to destroy or injure a human being.

According to writers who have watched Rex at work and have "interviewed" him, his complete transformation is one of the greatest miracles of its kind they have ever seen.

LEADING LADY
HAD CONFIDENCE IN FILM STAR

If it is true that a man's character may be measured by the confidence others place in him, Tom Mix must be a pretty regular sort of person.

There is a story told of a picture that was being made at the Grand Canyon in the course of which the leading lady was to be thrown from her horse and roll down a steep embankment. The director outlined the scene and the girl hesitated.

"Shall I do it, Tom?" she said.

"Yes," replied Mix quietly. "It will be all right."

That was all the assurance she needed.

It is the same with Tony and the dog, Duke. Probably no master ever got more perfect results with two animals than Mix has had with these—especially in his latest picture "His Pals," now showing at the Columbia—but that's because he gives them confidence.

Just as the frightened little star did, Tony and Duke looked up with that questioning "Shall I do it, Tom?"

And if Tom says "Yes," the thing is done.

FILM LOCATION
SCENE OF GREAT
GOLD "STRIKE"

In one part of the story of "The Iron Horse" the script called for George O'Brien, playing the leading role, to be lowered over a cliff by Cyril Chadwick, the "heavy." The purpose of this bit of action was for Mr. O'Brien to supposedly attempt the discovery of a pass that would

"I was out on location" in the Washoe Range of the Sierra Nevada where this particular scene was to be photographed, the company was visited by an old miner, who was at that time working a mine on the ledge where O'Brien was to land.

"You know," the old man said, "that's the way we used to get down—only by the rope. We did it and found the vein and we've been here ever since."

And the pass that is "discovered" in the photoplay was the same pass where the old miner discovered his pay dirt mine.

In addition to George O'Brien and Cyril Chadwick, other prominent players in "The Iron Horse," to be seen at the Capitol Theatre, all next week, are George Bellamy, Gladys Hulette, Will Walling, Fred Kohler and J. Farrell MacDonald.

COLISEUM PLAYERS
MAKING GOOD IN
"ARRIVAL OF KITTY"

Only two more days remain to see the Coliseum players in "The Arrival of Kitty" and the big screen attraction "Folly of Vanity." The play is staged in a charming mountain resort in the Catskill Mountains with wonderful settings and lighting effects.

The screen story was filmed in the sunny Santa Cruz Islands. Delightful musical numbers and swift comedy feature the stage offering.

Charles Darrington's film story, "Folly of Vanity," is a triumph of picture-making. It is a combination of modern society drama and under-sea fantasy; the sequence being inter-related in an unusual and thrilling manner.

A powerful cast has been assembled to make this great production. In it the refulgent Betty Blythe, famed as the most dazzling figure ever put upon the silver sheet, in her characterization of "The Queen of Sheba," returns as a "1925 Sheba," clothed in robes of rainbow hue. Billie Dove, who appears in both the modern and the fantasy sequences, has ample opportunity to demonstrate her powers as an actress and emphasize her beauty. Jack Mulhall who has the part of Farnsworth, the bridegroom is splendidly cast, as is John Sainpolis as "Ridgeway." Edna Mae Cooper, Paul Gunn, Marcelle Daly and Lotus Thompson are the women of "Ridgeway's" amazing dinner crowd.

"I'LL SHOW TOWN"
FILM CONTEST IS WON BY ALDERMAN

J. A. Shanks Drops Into Verse to Say
How He Would Act as Silver
Screen Star

To Alderman J. A. Shanks goes the honor of winning the Times contest on "I'll Show You the Town." With Reginald Denny at the Capitol Theatre appearing in the greatest comedy ever filmed, Manager Cliff Denham arranged for the Times contest in which competitors were called upon to say in 250 words how they would show the town in Victoria. The prizes were $5, $3 and $2, and as announced by Mr. Denham at the Capitol last night were awarded as follows:

- 1—Alderman J. A. Shanks.
- 2—L. Pembroke.
- 3—William Wilby.

Alderman Shanks felt the thrill of a successful author when informed of his victory, but was not surprised. "I put a lot of work into it," he remarked. "I didn't see how anyone could turn in a better entry."

WIDE RANGE OF
CLIMES PRESENTED IN "NECESSARY EVIL"

More Spanish Troops
Sent to Morocco

Fez, Sept. 18.—Spanish forces are reported to have made another landing in Albuquerque Bay, occupying a strip three kilometers (1.85 miles) deep, flanking their original position on Morro Nuevo Peninsula.

Madrid, Sept. 18.—The latest communication issued by the War Office dealing with the operations in Morocco says that in the western region there is nothing new to report.

Fez, Sept. 18.—The French now claim to hold most of the important strategic positions on the northern battlefield, and to have accomplished this result with a minimum of losses.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and the Bird Bath

Copyright, 1925, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate
(By Howard R. Garis)

Though Summer had almost said good-bye, still there were warm days left in Woodland, and one morning, when Uncle Wiggily arose, twinkled his pink nose, and felt how hot the sun was, he said:

"I will put one out!"

"Did you hear that?" asked Tooter of Scooter, as the two little bunny boys were dressing to go to the Hollow Stump School.

"Did I hear what?" asked Scooter, who was trying to stand on one ear and finding it not as easy as he had thought.

"Daddykins Wiggily must be going to play ball," went on Tooter. "I heard him say he was going to put one out. And when you play baseball you have to put some one out."

"What is it?" asked the rabbit gentleman.

"Are you going to play baseball?" went on Scooter.

"And if you are will you let us play?" begged Tooter. "We heard you say you were going to put one out."

"Ha! Ha!" laughed Uncle Wiggily. "I meant that I was going to put Down he sat—right in the bird bath!

out a bird bath. I had one out early in Summer when the days were hot and dry, and many birds came and splashed in my shallow basin of water. I took the bath in yesterday, for I thought it was too cool, but I still see some birds in my garden, so I will put my bird bath out again."

Which the bunny gentlemen did, and soon a robin who was staying up North longer than usual, was fluttering his wings in the water.

Then a blue jay, looking as gay as a moving picture, swooped down out of a tree, calling: "Hay! Hay! Hay!" He, too, splashed into the bird bath when the robin had gone away to a sunny place to dry his wings.

"Oh, this is lots of fun!" sang the blue jay. "Thanks for this bath, Uncle Wiggily!"

"You are quite welcome," answered the rabbit gentleman. "Tell the other birds to come here and cool off. I have plenty of water." He needed to fill up the bath when the robin and blue jay had finished, for, being rather large birds, they had splashed out a lot. And when the bath was filled again, down flew the humble little sparrows. They, too, enjoyed the bath, but they were so noisy and seemed to quarrel so among themselves, that Uncle Wiggily liked the robin and blue jay best. And the sparrows, because there were so many of them, used a lot of water, and Mr. Longears must needs get the can and fill up the bird bath once more.

He filled it full and running over this time, and as he was going away, to sit quietly on the porch of his bungalow, where he could watch the birds come, all of a sudden, up from the long grass where he had been hiding, popped the Bob Cat!

"I've been waiting for a good chance to nibble your ears," yowled the unpleasant creature.

"Yes, and I've been waiting for a good chance to give you a bath!" called the blue jay. Down he swooped, so close to the Bob Cat's face that the bad chap leaped back. Then he stumbled on a stone and down he sat—right in the bird bath. Oh, what a splash he made, and how wet that Bob Cat was!

"Yow! Meow! Zitt!" spluttered the Bob Cat, for he did not like water.

"Ha! Ha!" laughed the blue jay. "You aren't a bird, Mr. Bob Cat, but you got in the bird bath just the same."

Uncle Wiggily laughed also, and then the bad chap, who didn't like being laughed at any more than he liked getting wet, slunk off through

New Customs Act
In Australia

Melbourne, Sept. 18.—(Canadian Press Cable via Reuters).—The House of Representatives has passed the Customs Act Amendment Bill, legalizing the imposition of the condition that in order to have goods enjoy the full preference under the tariff they must be seventy-five per cent of Empire manufacture and granting a preference on goods of twenty-five per cent. Empire manufacture if the preference does not clash with established Australian industries.

TO INCREASE TOTAL OF IMMIGRANTSNew Arrangement Between Railways and Canadian Government is AnnouncedE. W. Beatty Says Railroad
Colonization Agencies Given
Freer Hand

Edmonton, Sept. 18.—A new arrangement entered into between the Canadian railways and the Government, by which it is hoped very materially to stimulate the movement of desirable immigrants to Canada, was announced by E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, in an address at a luncheon given in his honor last night by the Edmonton Board of Trade.

Under the new agreement the two chief railway companies, through their colonization departments, have been given a free hand to select, transport and distribute all colonists who can be properly assimilated in Canada, with the further privilege of issuing the necessary permits for their admission, subject to the requirements of the statute and to the mental and physical fitness of the applicants.

"As a result of this agreement," said Mr. Beatty, "we may be able, in view of the favorable harvest conditions existing in the West, to look forward to a renewal of the movement of those who are urgently needed in solving the serious problems we are now faced with in Canada."

ALL SECTIONS INTERESTED

Since the beginning of the Great War, said Mr. Beatty, Canada had had to limp along on its reserve man power and until the man power was pumped in again on the old scale, activities must be curtailed and progress slow. This condition was not confined to Western Canada. Nova Scotia and New Brunswick needed additional population and had good farm land available, and their people believed they had been sidetracked by the booming of the West as a location for settlers.

"The need of new population is imperative, both East and West," said Mr. Beatty. "The Manitoba Free Press recently made the amazing but, no doubt, true statement that after 100 years of settlement, the whole population of Canada does not equal the increase in population in the United States in fifteen years."

CANADIANS RETURNING

"Our achievements since the war have been disappointing. During the four years ending December 31, 1924, 399,520 people came to Canada, which is estimated 235,000 Canadians left the country. The only bright spot is that from April 1 to November 30 last year, official figures indicate that 34,000 Canadians returned from the United States and this flow has continued."

MUCH LAND AVAILABLE

"There are approximately 25,000,000 acres of vacant land suitable for cultivation in the three Prairie Provinces, situated within fifteen miles of existing railways," said Mr. Beatty. "If these were subdivided into 320-acre farms it would mean 78,125 new farms for immediate cultivation. If in each half section there were four colonists, the total would be 312,500. Government statistics estimate the value of each family of four in the purchase of goods to be $1,562.95 net per annum, so the value of this settlement to the country would be $112,196,000 per annum."

Mr. Beatty pointed out there was nothing that would hold Canadians in Canada and that it was their duty to so effectively as national prosperity, particularly among the producers. Profitable production and effective distribution would solve the principal national problems. The two transportation companies recognized that only by increased population could the problems of national debt, excessive railway rates and need for further industrial development be solved.

FAITH OF C.P.R.

Mr. Beatty concluded with an expression of complete confidence and faith in the future of Canada, which, he said, was the greatest of Canadian Pacific contributions to the development of the Dominion, which seemed to him confidence and faith were what Canadians most of all needed to-day. After-war depression had led to talk of people losing hope, to talk of disintegration, of provinces threatening to secede, even of the possibility of Canada casting in her lot with the great country to the south. But there was one institution in Canada which had not lost confidence, which still had faith in the future of the Dominion, which still believed that the one and only salvation of this country was to remain an undivided whole with its present Empire ties and that institution was the Canadian Pacific Railway.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia to Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Blaud's Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas, wind and acid out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no source or pain. Blaud's Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion. (Adv.)

bucyent tone that is developing in the whole Pacific Northwest. Seattle of course is in the throes of a big building boom, he said. In the inland Empire of which Spokane is the capital, he declared that the lumbering industry was now booming, mining good and getting better on both sides of the boundary line in the interior and that the crops of Washington and Idaho this season were bringing in more money than usual.

"The result of all this is that more building has now been started in Spokane than at any time during the last ten years," Mr. King said.

"There are many new homes being built in the city and suburbs and downtown building has started, led by a new eight-story building for the telephone company.

"Tourist traffic in Spokane shows an increase of thirty per cent this season over last, according to the returns compiled from the records of the Davenport Hotel."

While here, Mr. King is being entertained by Stephen Jones, proprietor of the Dominion Hotel, who is assisting him to see the district and get the information he requires.

OBITUARY

Funeral service was held at the Thompson Funeral Home, 1824 Quadra Street, yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock for the late Mr. John Hamilton, who passed away at the home of his son, William F. Hamilton, 1288 Denman Street, Tuesday morning. The Rev. W. J. Knott conducted a very impressive service, during which the hymns "Abide With Me" and "Lead, Kindly Light" were sung. There were many sympathizing friends present and a profusion of beautiful floral designs covered the casket and hearse, bearing testimony to the high esteem in which the late Mr. Hamilton was held by his many friends. Messrs. W. J. Rennie, J. T. Taylor, W. Hall, W. H. Clarke, C. Yule and T. Mathison acted as pallbearers. The body was laid to rest in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

The body of the late Wong Hoy is being at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel, whence the funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon, September 27. Interment will be made in the Chinese Cemetery.

NEWS IN BRIEF

The Princess Maquinnah will not sail on her next trip up the West Coast until Monday, September 21, which is a day off. The trip of the Island Princess, scheduled for tomorrow, has been cancelled.

The Young People's Society of the Pilgrim United Church will hold its regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock. The evening will be given up to devotional study. By the society's request, Mr. H. Masters will give a suitable address.

Ash cans are supplied by the city for use in back gardens, and are proper receptacles for ashes and other refuse. Fire Chief Vernon Stuart says that people who use boxes or other wooden receptacles for ashes are liable to prosecution.

Permission to take the appeal to the Privy Council was granted yesterday in the case of Attorney-General vs. Vancouver Lumber Company at a special sitting of the Court of Appeal. Oscar Bass made the application on behalf of the defendant company.

The regular monthly meeting of the Victoria district members of the B. C. Bookers' Association will be held in the Y.M.C.A. on Monday evening, September 21 at 8 o'clock. A large attendance is requested to discuss business arising out of the fair and discuss suggestions for improvement next year.

Twenty-one Chinese, charged with being inmates of a gaming house, the Yet Ge Guey Club, appeared again before Magistrate Jay in the City Police Court this morning. Prosecution and defence concluded their cases. The magistrate will give his decision next week. The case was concluded after the hearing of a large number of Chinese witnesses.

Fire Chief Vernon Stuart to-day issued a warning against kite flying, saying that this must be done in places where there were plenty of room and where there were no telephone or fire wires. Kites tangling in these wires often fouled and brought a fire, and in connection with one of these wires, which meant that the fire box would be burned out, only replaceable at considerable cost.

Although she claimed to have been merely mixing hot drinks for friends of her brother, one of whom had a cold, Mrs. Chisholm, of 840 Cormorant Street, was yesterday afternoon fined $300, with an option of three months in jail. Police officers, who watched through a window of the house, stated they saw Mrs. Chisholm serve drinks and that money passed between her and those supplied. The evidence was direct and could not be doubted, Magistrate George Jay said, before imposing sentence. Mrs. Chisholm made a strong plea for leniency through R. C. Lowe, her counsel.

An enjoyable concert was held in the Orange Hall Thursday evening, under the auspices of Queen of the Island Lodge No. 289, L.O.B.A., when a splendid programme of songs, recitations and dances was presented. County Master McCall presided. The programme was as follows: Piano solo, Mrs. Hastings; song, Miss Mathews; recitation, Master Hastings; song, J. Davies; recitation, Mr. Semple; dance, Miss Sylvia Letterman; song, Mr. Cobbett; Dutch dance, Misses Mona and Dorris Jewell; recitation, Mr. Davies; Chinese dance, Miss Lillian Toger; recitation, Mr. Semple; song, Mr. Cobbett; Russian dance, Misses Dorris Jewell and Mabel Rutledge. The songs of Mr. Cobbett and Mr. Davies were repeatedly encored, the songs of Mr. Cobbett produced peals of laughter, also the recitations given by Mr. Davies. Mr. Davies presided at the piano, and was responsible for the entire programme. Sister Mrs. Stephen was convener of the committee.

Dame Alice Godman, Girl Guide Leader, Here With Daughters

Dame Alice Godman of Horsham, Sussex, one of England's best known war workers and a leader in the Girl Guide movement, arrived in Victoria this morning on a tour of Canada. Dame Godman is the county commissioner of the Girl Guides for Sussex. She is active in the Red Cross in England.

With her on her tour are her two daughters who are also prominent in the Girl Guide work, being district commissioners and county secretaries.

Dame Godman said she planned to stay in Victoria for about two weeks, seeing the city and part of the island. While here she will meet local leaders of the Girl Guides. After she leaves Victoria she will go to Toronto to meet Girl Guide leaders there.

On her arrival this morning, she and her daughters were greeted by Col. Chaplin, of this city, who is a cousin.

Spanish Beauties, Speaking No English, Have Fun on Visit

What does it seem like to be in a foreign country and not be able to speak the language? This is what a collection of Spanish beauties is faced with at the Dominion Hotel.

The reply that they give to those who are able to understand is that it is really lots of fun as long as one is a member of such a jolly party.

The party of Spanish beauties came from Santa Ana, San Salvador and is headed by Maria de Vides, the mother of some of the girls. The others are friends. All belong to wealthy families in San Salvador. They decided to make a tour of the North Pacific this year as their holiday. They are seeing all they can of Victoria in their two days here before they leave on the boat for San Francisco Sunday.

The party is in charge of G. Alex Vides, who now lives in Los Angeles.

WOMAN MISSING

Vancouver, Sept. 18.—A note left for Miss Jean Robertson, fifty-five years old, by her landlady, C. F. Lockhart, when he called for the rent at her South Vancouver home on September 8 and found her absent was still untouched when he called again last night. The woman, who was last seen by neighbors on September 5, is said to have been subject to loss of memory.

JOE SIMPSON HAS BEEN PURCHASED BY NEW YORK CLUB

Star Edmonton Defence Man Bought by New N.H.L. Team; Others in Deal

"Hec" Fowler, Former Victoria Goalie, May Guard Nets For Tex Rickard's Club

Ottawa, Sept. 18.—Purchases of Joe Simpson, star defence player of the Edmonton professional hockey team, by the New York club of the National Hockey League, was confirmed here to-day by T. P. Gorman, manager of Tex Rickard's new National Hockey League entry. He also admitted that Crutchy Morrison and Roy Riekey, of the Edmonton team, also figured in the deal. Simpson received $10,000, the flashiest players in professional hockey.

Besides the purchase of Morrison, a hockey and hockey defence man, the New York club is said to have an option on Goalie "Hec" Fowler, the former Victoria man.

Edmonton, Sept. 18.—The sale of Joe Simpson, Roy Riekey and Crutchy Morrison of the Edmonton professional hockey team to the New York club of the National Hockey League, is confirmed by Kenny McKenzie, the local hockey magnate. The deal has been pending for some time, indeed Tommy Gorman was once trying to buy the entire Edmonton team, but it would have been impossible to waive the entire roster out of the Western Canada Hockey League.

NEW RESIDENT MINING ENGINEER AT KAMLOOPS

H. G. Nichols to Take Charge of Mineral Survey District No. 3, Minister Announces

Announcement was made to-day by William S. Minister of Mines, of the appointment of H. G. Nichols, a prominent mining engineer who has long been a resident of this Province, to the position of resident mining engineer, Mineral Survey District No. 3, with headquarters at Kamloops. This office was previously occupied by Major A. W. Davis, who resigned several months ago to undertake the management of the development of a promising mineral property in northern British Columbia. No. 3, or the Central Survey District, is one of the important sections in respect of mining possibilities, and is of particular interest at this time for the fact that the Pacific Great Eastern Railway extends from its southern to its northern boundaries.

ESCAPED PRISONER REPORTED CAPTURED

Seattle, Sept. 18.—Deputy sheriffs were reported on their way here this afternoon from Esmonds, ten miles north of this city, with Joe Ward, one of six men who broke from the King County jail here. The prisoner was taken off a boat from Port Ludlow. John Weeks of Everett, who was taken into custody Wednesday by Snohomish county authorities, declared he had driven Charles Kilbourne, father of Alva Kilbourne, one of the escaped convicts, and Harry Kilbourne, a brother, to Seattle Monday. The relatives visited the outlaw at the jail and Weeks said he had been told by the prisoner that "never serve a sentence" and that he always "had an ace in the hole to help in an escape."

Weeks was arrested with Horace Hinchcliffe when he met Hinchcliffe at a bridge at Riverside in Everett. Hinchcliffe had a pistol which authorities declared to have been smuggled to Kilbourne and Joe Ward, another of the six.

DEFENCE FUNDS FOR ABDUCTION TRIAL

Scottish Society Aid For Point Grey Officials in Wong Case

Vancouver, Sept. 17.—It is reported that differences of opinion in the membership of the council of the Scottish Societies of Vancouver regarding the further prosecution of the Janet Smith investigation has resulted in the resignation of David Paterson as president of that organization.

The former committee of investigation has been dissolved, but, according to Mrs. J. Robertson, vice-president, who is acting president, a new committee will be formed and the work will be continued.

It was apparently the feeling of the meeting, officials announced, that all resources should be used to free the Point Grey officials of the abduction charges on which they are held, and all money collected for the Janet Smith investigation should be used for the new fund which has been started to pay the legal cost of defending the Point Grey officials.

CHANGE IS SURPRISE

The discharge of the investigation committee, which was formed on August 7, 1925, came as a surprise, but Mrs. Robertson stated another committee would be formed and the work continued.

Paterson, former chairman of the committee, stated, however, that it would be impossible for another committee to take over the work, for they had the information which had been gathered during the past year.

ALDERMEN HEAR JUSTICE MARTIN EXPLAIN VIEWS

Council Holding Special Session Regarding Elk Lake

The City Council, this afternoon at the City Hall, heard Mr. Justice Martin's views on the operations this year carried out at Elk Lake, a large audience being present to witness the proceedings.

Mayor Pendray briefly outlined the scope of the business before the council, which he ruled to be limited to examination into written charges by His Lordship, and development work upon golf links at Elk Lake has this year been carried out by civic officials, in accordance with the plans of the golf links architect.

The council then went into committee of the whole, to permit Mr. Justice Martin to discuss freely with the aldermen the points he wished to advance.

The debate was proceeding as The Times went to press.

B.C. TO SHIP SEED POTATOES TO CALIFORNIA

New Business May be Opened up on Large Scale; U.S. "Potato King" Here

Southern Growers Plan to Get Superior B.C. Product to Improve Crops

California may soon be buying seed potatoes from British Columbia in large quantities as a result of plans which are being fostered now by officials of the Provincial Department of Agriculture.

H. G. Zuckerman of Stockton, California, said to be the biggest potato grower in the State, came to Victoria this week to arrange for the shipment of large quantities of potato seed to his 1,700-acre potato farm—British Columbia potato seed.

Mr. Zuckerman told agricultural officials he is far superior to the growers in California and he is anxious to improve his crops by planting it.

If satisfactory arrangements can be made a shipment of seed will go forward to Mr. Zuckerman's farm this fall. Other California potato growers, who operate on an enormous scale, are anxious to secure British Columbia seed if they can buy it at a reasonable price.

Cecil Tice, potato expert of the Department of Agriculture, is assisting Mr. Zuckerman in his quest for B.C. potato seed. It is planned to handle seed shipments through certified potato seed associations in British Columbia.

The visit of the California potato king follows the efforts of the Department of Agriculture to interest southern growers in the potatoes of this country. Last year samples of the British Columbia product were sent to California and growers there. The results were highly satisfactory and immediately interested the southern growers.

PREPARES FOR RAIL BOARD VISIT TO CITY

Freight Rates Discussed at Chamber of Commerce Meeting

Representations Victoria should make before the Railway Commission, which is expected to sit in this city at the end of September, were discussed at a meeting of the directors of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce this afternoon. The Commission, C. P. W. Schwengers told the directors would travel through Canada to hear representations in regard to the new freight rate structure it had been instructed to work out. The president read a suggested draft of the representations, supplementary to the removal of discrimination which supported Premier Oliver's plea for the removal of undue discrimination. The supplementary recommendations were for the benefit of Victoria and Vancouver Island.

They sought to maintain Victoria in the Vancouver zone and to end new tariff and to make some articles essential to the development of resources to receive special consideration from the usual mileage rate tariff. Expert analysis of many items was essential in drafting a tariff, said the report as it might not be considered within the scope of the Railway Commission to have all the data at their disposal in this connection. Conferences with the producer, manufacturer, consumer and distributor were essential.

Sweeping discrimination could be wiped out and the zoning system maintained, Mr. Schwengers remarked.

Victoria, J. O. Cameron thought, should sit tight. If there was an opportunity to even the rate on lumber, Victoria should fight for it. If there was any attack on the rates on grain or structural steel enjoyed here, Victoria should be ready to resist it, but apart from that he did not think they should take action.

The recommendations were adopted.

VICTORIA GAINING SAYS BIG OPERATOR

James Cavanagh, international real estate operator, arrived in Victoria yesterday on the Aorangi from Honolulu and at once set out from his rooms in the Empress Hotel to make a survey of conditions here.

Mr. Cavanagh has really investments in various parts of the world, including Victoria, Seattle, Florida, Capetown, South Africa, and Honolulu, and spends his time traveling from one to the other supervising them. It is nearly eighteen months since he has been in Victoria.

To-day Mr. Cavanagh said that he found his realty investments here in much better shape than they have been in almost since the boom days.

"I was not surprised at the improvement I found since I stepped off the boat yesterday and began looking into the condition of the properties in which I am interested here," Mr. Cavanagh said. "I had heard down in Honolulu that things were picking up here. In fact, the news is getting so well spread that the men of money I met in Honolulu were asking about investing here. From financial returns things are certainly much better in Victoria and getting still better."

"Investments in Victoria will be good as the city has a steady population of people who stand by it. I've been around the world and the climate here stands out above other climates."

"The improvement here I believe will continue steadily, as outsiders are more interested in Victoria than ever."

Mr. Cavanagh will be here for a short time, during which he will go to Seattle to look after his properties there. After that he will go to Florida for the winter real estate season.

BASEBALL, CRICKET, HUSKY AMERICAN SOCCER TEAM WHICH WILL PLAY ANNUAL GAME WITH VETS TO-MORROW, SWIMMING, GOLF

Foley Defends Two Titles To-night In Bout With Mascot

Portland Boy Will Seek to Lift Vic's Canadian and Coast Championships

Both Boys Have Fought Here Before and Proved Ability; Great Fight Expected

Two years ago Vic Foley fought in the arena as a challenger for the Canadian bantam-weight championship. To-night he appears in the same ring with not only the Canadian crown upon his brow, but also the Pacific Coast laurels as well. Foley is billed to go ten rounds with Billy Mascot at the arena in what should prove the best fight that has been put on here in years. Foley is without doubt one of the smartest bantamweights in the game to-day and the fact that he holds the Canadian title is proving a great drawing card. Both Foley's titles will be at stake to-night.

Foley last fought here against Babe Foote of Portland, who, outside of a good right-hand had nothing to recommend him to the land. He stayed the limit with Foley but simply because he would not come out of his shell.

NEVER HAD A SHELL

To-night Foley is pitted against a fighter who never had a shell. Mascot is a rugged two-handed fighter who likes to mix things. He is practically Foley's double in build and as both have had great ring experience and are in good condition they will be able to thrill the fans.

The little fellows step lively all the way and are not like the ponderous heavyweights who hit once a minute and think that is enough. Mascot appeared here two years ago when he put Frankie Elliot to bye-bye in quick fashion. Mascot is anxious to relieve Foley of his crown, but of course Vic says there's no chance.

Judging from the excitement among fight lovers in Victoria the prospect of a keen championship fight is creating a greater sensation than any ring event in Victoria for some time.

In addition to the local interest, Nanaimo, Duncan, Ladysmith, Courtenay and other up-island cities will be well represented at the arena to-night. Many of Foley's supporters are expected on the afternoon boat from Vancouver.

A MIXED CROWD

There will be a mixed crowd. Having heard much of the grace and agility of the bantams with the wonderful steps and quick action many ladies have been lured by the prospect of seeing the diminutive, but physically perfect boys in action. Schoolboys have seized the opportunity which has been thrown out to them.

By the measurements the boys seem well matched. Here is the comparison.

The measurements of the principals are as follows:

Foley: Age, 27; Height, 5 ft. 4 in.; Weight, 145 lbs.; Neck, 15 in.; Chest, 33 1/2 in.; Chest expanded, 39 in.; Waist, 28 in.; Biceps, 11 1/2 in.; Thigh, 17 in.; Ankle, 12 in.; Sloane, B.C., born in Montreal, Que. Billy Davies has been named the third man in the ring for the big bout. V. K. Gray and Frank Stevenson will be the judges.

Most of the men in the fine preliminary card are in good condition and the four-round events look good enough to well sustain a title event.

Other Clubs Seek Admittance to the N.H.L. This Year

Montreal, Sept. 18.—It was learned from an authoritative source to-day that an application for a franchise for Cleveland, Ohio, would be presented at next week's meeting of the National Hockey League in New York. Joe Cattarino, one of the owners of the Canadian hockey club, it was stated, has been asked to represent the Cleveland interests.

With New York and Boston already members and the Pittsburgh club's first payments already to be in the hands of Frank Calder, president of the National Hockey League, the coming of Cleveland would give the United States four clubs.

It is said the American interests will be closely allied and that a big four is already being planned to meet either Pittsburgh or Cleveland before refused admittance. Lionel Conacher will manage Pittsburgh, while Odie Cleghorn has been recommended to head the Cleveland club.

BATTLED TO A DRAW

Aurora, Ill., Sept. 18.—Babe Herman, New York, matched to meet Louis (Kid) Kaplanfor, the world's featherweight title in New York. December 18, fought a ten-round bout with Ray Miller, Chicago, here last night.

On Card To-night

HARVEY HOLLIDAY

110-pound fighter from Vancouver, who shows in the preliminaries before the Foley-Mascot ten-round mill at the arena to-night.

Bon Stein Beaten By Honolulu Star

In Southern Golf

Seattle Player Suffers Unexpected Reverse; Egan, Hunter and Dolf Still in Delmonte, Sept. 18.—Although some surprises were offered during the second round of match play of the California amateur golf championship tournament here yesterday, most of the favorites emerged victorious in their matches. H. Chandler Egan of Modesto, Ont., twenty years ago national champion, continued his march toward the semi-finals by eliminating Dr. C. H. Walker of Oakland, 4 and 2.

The feature of the day and one of the big upsets was the defeat of Bon Stein of Seattle at the hands of Francis Brown, the Honolulu star, 3 and 1.

George von Elm, who always draws a gallery, played true to form and eliminated San Francisco's hope, Johnny McHugh, 4 and 3.

NORTHWEST STILL STRONG

The Pacific Northwest still has two men besides Egan that survived the championship flight. Chuck Hunter, Tacoma, played his best brand of golf and won comfortably from W. A. Campbell, Los Angeles, 4 and 3.

In the meantime, Frank Diefel, Vancouver, from Portland, eliminated Jack Neville, Los Angeles star and former state titleholder, 4 and 3.

Harold Thompson of Glendale won yesterday from Dr. A. Don Dion of San Jose, 2 and 1. Frank Tatum downed his fellow player from Los Angeles, Max Behr, after shooting twenty ones.

Dr. P. Hunter eliminated Art Schaefer, Los Angeles, 2 and 1.

"Big Four" of U.S. Tennis Meeting in Semi-finals To-day

Forest Hills, N.Y., Sept. 18.—The "Big Four" of American tennis which kept this country at the top of the international heap for six successive years, will fight it out for the national singles title of 1925.

This was determined yesterday when the four American Davis Cup aces—William T. Tilden, William K. Johnston, R. Norris Williams and Vincent Richards—emerged as sole survivors of the international field which battled in the forty-fourth annual championship tournament.

To-day Tilden, his sixth straight crown, will face Richards, while Johnston and Williams, each of whom has held the championship twice, will be opponents in the other match.

Johnston was the only victor extended in any serious measure yesterday. "Little Bill" was forced to call on all his resources to repel the hurricane attack of Alonso. The Spaniard set a tremendous pace for the start, and though he died eventually as a result of it, he fought for every point down to the finish, sustaining the most sensational sort of rallies.

Johnston will find even stiffer opposition to-day, however, if Williams continues the streak which has made him the comeback hero of the tournament. The Davis Cup captain was defeated in the Wimbledon "yesterday against Kinsie"

Vets Will Field Strong Eleven To Oppose Washington

Teams Will Meet in Annual Match at Royal Athletic Park To-morrow Afternoon

Kick-off at 3.15 p.m.; Practice Games Also Scheduled at Various Parks

Soccer fans are anticipating a great game to-morrow afternoon when the Veterans oppose the pick of the State of Washington at the Royal Athletic Park. The kick-off will be at 3.15 o'clock and Percy Payne will handle the whistle. Alderman Marchant, chairman of the parks' committee, will perform the ceremony of kicking-off.

Seattle have sent word that they are bringing a stronger team than last year when they defeated the Vets in a hard-fought battle. The visitors are reported to be a heavy team and play great combination, while their shooting is deadly. So far the Americans have won all the games played so far with the Vets.

A handsome cup goes to the winner of this match and Washington will bring it over with them, but they are determined to take it back to the Sound on their return journey.

VETERANS ARE CONFIDENT

The veterans will present a far more formidable team than last season and they are fully confident of winning the trophy for the first time. This time the players will be last night and all reported in first-class condition. It is most likely that "Red" Meredith, the red-shirted fullback, will make his initial appearance paired along with the Whyte, who played such a fine game last week against Cumberland last Saturday. Chris Owens is still on the sick list and will not be able to play. The forward line will be practically the same as last week except that the left wing will be changed around.

The Veterans will be picked from the following, the final selection to be made this evening: Bridges, Meredith, Whyte, Copas, Campbell, Preston, Thorne, McCormack, Phillips, Ferguson, Coulter, Clark, Merfield and Rickinson. Players are requested to be at the Veterans of France club-rooms by 2 o'clock to-morrow.

The Seattle lineup will be: Duncan, T. Corbett, Purvis, Abbey, Barwick, Patmore, J. Dowie, Donkin, Bennett, J. Corbett, and Kempton.

An exhibition game will be played at Beacon Hill to-morrow afternoon commencing at 3 o'clock between Eastern and Western Island.

The Victoria West Football Club will have a practice to-morrow afternoon at the Victoria West Park starting at 2.30 o'clock. All players are requested to turn out.

To-morrow a football game will be played between the Sons of England and Spanish Thistles. Although this will be a practice game, the ground will be marked out in regular manner, a referee and linesmen appointed, and the English football rules will prevail.

Thus, eliminating the half-hearted style of play usually exhibited in practice games. Both teams have a number of new players on their membership roll and will therefore take this opportunity of selecting their strongest players for the coming season. The kick-off will be at 3.15 o'clock.

The following players are asked to be present: Price, Main, Preston, Crowe, Gandy, Hill, Sellers, Darcy, Kolman, Whisker, Ivings, Wood and Ewing.

Sons of England—Holman, Tuckwell, Armistead, Shanks, Harwood, Swan, Drybrough, Gossie, Thompson, Burns, McCabe, Minnis, Thomas, Barclay and Brownings.

Newly-formed Rifle Club Discusses Plans For Winter Months

With President P.H.M. Wallis presiding, representatives from the Fifth Regiment C.G.A., Garrison Rifle Association, Sixteenth Canadian Scottish Regiment, Eleventh Machine Gun Brigade, No. 2 Company, C.A.S.C., 388th, 112th and 170th Battalions attended last night's meeting of the newly-organized Victoria District Rifle League.

Gunner Weedon, Sgt. Major H. Read and Capt. Bate were appointed as a committee to go into the matter of miniature rifle work, while Major Wilby, Sgt. Major Frank Hatcher and Evans, and Capt. Cummings were elected a committee on finance.

Each of the regimental units will be asked to appoint one of its members to act on the match committee, which will carry out all arrangements for the shooting during the winter months.

The next meeting of the league will be held on Friday of next week at the Armouries.

Fernie, Champs of Alberta, En Route to Vancouver For Games

Fernie, B.C., Sept. 18.—The Fernie Coal Company baseball club, winners of the Alberta amateur championship, entrained this morning for Vancouver, where the first of a five-game series for the Western Canada championship will be played on Saturday afternoon with Fraser Cafe, British Columbia champions.

Husky American Soccer Team Which Will Play Annual Game With Vets To-morrow

The State of Washington has mustered a hefty eleven to try conclusions with the Veterans' Football Club to-morrow afternoon at the Royal Athletic Park. Those in the above picture are as follows: Back row, left to right, Manager Atwood; Assistant Trainer McGivray; W. Dowie, spare; T. Corbett, right full-back; J. Patmore, half-back; Duncan, goal; Abbey, centre-half; Purvis, full-back; Barwick, half-back; Treasurer Duncan and President Wild. Front row, Trainer Beaumont; J. Dowie, Donkin, C. Bennett (capt.), Kempton and Campbell, forwards. In front, J. Abbey, mascot.

Cougars Will Make Trip East Only If Terms Satisfactory

Lester Says Negotiations Started Some Time Ago; Next Move up to East

Cougars Looked Upon as Miracle Team in East and Fans Want to See Them

"There is nothing definite yet on the trip of the Victoria Cougars, world's champions, to the East, prior to the opening of the hockey season," declared Lester Patrick, manager of the Stanley Cup holders, this morning.

"In the Summer I was approached by Eastern interests to take the Cougars on a trip to Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto," went on Lester. "I named my terms and since then I have received no information. It is quite possible that a deal will be closed but the next move is up to the East."

It has been customary in recent years for Western clubs to tour the East prior to the opening of the season. Two years ago Edmonton played a series in Ottawa and last year the Calgary Tigers, Western title-holders, took in the jaunt.

A BIG ATTRACTION

The Victoria Cougars are now a very big attraction. The East has never fully recovered from the heavy defeat which the Cougars inflicted on the Victoria Canadians.

The Frenchmen were supposed to have a collection of stars without equal in the history of hockey. They came west to defend the Stanley Cup, which they had won easily in the East from Calgary the previous year.

Regarding the meeting of the Western Canada Hockey League in Calgary, Lester remarked that only routine business was transacted outside of the transfer of the Regina franchise to Portland.

Lester said the fans will get plenty of hockey news once the world's baseball series is over. The Patrickes have always stuck to a principle of withholding all news until the hockey season is near at hand, so that other sports may get their share of attention. It is doubtful if anything would have been said about the proposed trip of the Cougars to the East had not a query come over the Canadian Press from the East last night asking for Lester's opinion.

KEN WILLIAMS THROUGH

Grants Pass, Ore., Sept. 18.—Ken Williams, star outfielder of the St. Louis Browns, returned to his home in Grants Pass. He will be out of the game for the remainder of the season, due to injuries sustained when he was hit on the head by a pitched ball.

A Pittsburg Star

HAROLD TRAYNOR

Harold "Pie" Traynor's a star. He's termed the best third sacker in the National League. A sterling fielder, he can hit. With his eye on the job Manager McKeehan has little to worry about around the hot corner.

Golf Title Will Likely Return To Canada This Year

Only One American Lady Reaches Semi-finals and Mrs. Fraser Plays Her

Ottawa, Sept. 18.—Three Canadians at present playing in the semi-finals of the Canadian women's open golf championship here, will play in the United States open championship, which commences in St. Louis on September 28. They are Mrs. (Dr.) W. G. Fraser, formerly Miss Alexa Stirling; Miss Ada Mackenzie of the Mississauga Club, Toronto, and Mrs. F. J. Mulqueen of the Toronto Golf Club.

Ottawa, Sept. 18.—As a result of three round matches of the twentieth Canadian ladies' open golf championship yesterday, Canada is in a better position to secure the title than since it was last won by a Canadian in 1919 by Miss Ada Mackenzie of Mississauga. Before yesterday's play commenced Canada and the United States were on even terms as far as numerical strength was concerned, with four representatives each, but when the smoke of battle cleared away late yesterday afternoon, and the third round produced battles—Canada had three players in the semi-finals to a lone American. Judging from the previous form of the survivors, it should occupy both places in the final on Saturday.

To-day's semi-finals will find Mrs. G. Fraser, formerly Alexa Stirling, of the Royal Ottawa Club, opposing Mrs. Edward Baker of Boston, and the Toronto rivals, Mrs. F. J. Mulqueen of the Toronto Golf Club and Miss Ada Mackenzie of Mississauga, battling for a place in the final match.

A practice of the Victoria United football team will be held at the Central Park to-morrow afternoon, starting at 2.30 o'clock.

Hotspurs To Meet Huddersfield Town In Feature Battle

To-morrow's Card in English Football Has Few Matches of Much Interest

Rangers to Play St. Mirren's in Classic Match in Scottish Football

London, Sept. 18.—The feature of the English football league on Saturday will be staged in the metropolis, where Tottenham Hotspurs will entertain Huddersfield Town. Second only to this will be the contest at Cardiff where the Welshmen play Sunderland. Outside of these two encounters the rest of the first division tournaments are invested with no more than passing interest.

Glasgow, Scotland, Sept. 18.—Scheduled engagements in the first division of the Scottish League on Saturday, including an interesting contest when the Rangers meet St. Mirren at Ibrox Park. The Paisley club is one of the two undefeated teams in the division, the other being Celtic.

Hearts of Midlothian, who broke into the winning column in no uncertain fashion last Saturday by defeating Clydebank 7 to 0, may embrace another opportunity of lifting themselves out of the rut the day after to-morrow when they play Queen's Park. The game is at Hampden Park which, however, means little for the amateurs have already been licked there, losing to Aberdeen two weeks ago.

ABERDEEN FANCIED

Their defeat of the Rangers having brought them into the spotlight, Aberdeen are considerably fancied in the game on Saturday against Clydebank.

Both the Edinburgh teams are under a cloud and Hibernian share with the Hearts in exhibitions of mediocrity. On Saturday they entertain Partick Thistle at Easter Road and this should give them a chance of relegating themselves with the fans. It is doubtful if Partick will make a game of it for the Hibernians.

Other games: St. Johnstone at Alderlie, Dundee United at Cowdenbeath, Raith Rovers at Falkirk, Kilmarnock at Hamilton, Motherwell at Morton.

London, Sept. 18.—Results of football: THIRD DIVISION Southern Section Newport County 0, Charlton Athletic 0.

RUGBY UNION Gloucester 14, Old Edwardsians 3, Pontypridd 3, Neath 0, Porthadraw 3, Swansea 7.

Lawn Bowling

By courtesy of the Victoria Lawn Bowling Club the final for the Burnside doubles was played under the new lighting system on Beacon Hill green.

Bowlers who can only play after business hours have very little opportunity to enjoy the game since daylight saving has been abandoned. The privilege accorded the Burnside players to decide this match under the electric lights was greatly appreciated, and a well-contested game resulted in favor of W. Tupman and J. Renfrew by eight points, the final score being: J. P. Hibben and F. Moulis 13, W. Tupman and J. Renfrew 23.

Famous Jockey of Years Gone by is Now Stony Broke

New York, Sept. 18.—Winnie O'Connor, the Sande of other days when he rode for kings, is "flat broke" to-day. In his late forties, O'Connor hopes that some wealthy race horse owner will find a place for him in his stable as a trainer. He is now living in Jamaica, L.I., a few blocks from the track, where he daily watches young riders, who once held him a star, "bootin'" the horses in. He has declined charity.

Winnie in 1901 rode 553 winners, a record never since equaled.

New Rifle Match Is Expected To Prove Wonderful Success

King Has Presented Trophy For New Competition Among Schoolboys in Empire

London, Eng., Sept. 18.—The National Rifle Association announced in February last that the War Office and Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa had all agreed in principle to grouping the results of the Imperial Challenge Shield Competitions for boys under 18 years of age so as to form an Annual Test Match on a large scale and that His Majesty the King was graciously presenting a challenge trophy.

His Majesty has sent the encouraging message that he is convinced that the new match should prove a success and promote a spirit of comradeship amongst the boys of the Empire.

Great Britain, Canada, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand will each remain unrestricted as to the number of competitors who may enter for the Imperial Shields Competitions, but for the King's Trophy they will be represented in 1925 by the best teams or platoons selected after firing and aggregating not less than 2,000 boys whose average score will constitute the figure of merit, and each of the four nations, India, Ceylon, Rhodesia and all the remaining British possessions will be grouped as from one dominion so as to collect the necessary minimum number of teams or platoons on their behalf and enable every British boy to compete in the test match no matter where he lives.

The trophy has now been received from His Majesty the King. With the King's approval the National Rifle Association will present medals of honor in connection with this match. Every boy in any part of the Empire who scores 100 points will receive this medal in silver, and boys who score 90 or 95 points the medal in bronze.

Washington, Sept. 18.—"Long Jim" Barnes is the unofficial golf champion of the world.

Barnes defeated Willie MacFarlane, holder of the American open championship, by a score of 12 up and 11 to go in their 72 hole special match, the concluding half of which was played yesterday over the Columbia Club course.

Barnes, who won the British open at Prestwick this year, displayed in his morning round some of the golf that enabled him to capture that classic. He played the 6,700-yard course in 71, one stroke over par, and was 3 up. Having amassed a preliminary lead of thirty-three holes at Philadelphia, the lanky pro merely loafed and halved his way to victory in the seven holes that constituted the afternoon round.

MURPHY WINS RACE

Syracuse, N.Y., Sept. 18.—Tommy Murphy scored his first victory of the New York State Fair Grand circuit meeting here yesterday, when he won the governor's stake for 2.06 trotters and a $5,000 purse in straight heats with Hollywood Leonard, owned by William H. Kelley of Syracuse.

Walter Cox captured the Greer memorial stake for $5,000 after a thrilling three-heat race with Murphy by winning the last two heats.

Walt Johnson Is Failure But Vet Coveleskie Wins

Washington Broke Even With Detroit and Still Lead by Seven and Half Games

Pittsburg's Barrage of Hits Downs Boston and Gives Them Lead of Seven Games

New York, Sept. 18.—The Pirates are now leading the National League by seven games and the Senators are in front in the American League by seven and a half games. Ray Kremer held Boston to seven hits while his teammates rolled up thirteen hits for a Pirate victory of 11 to 2 yesterday.

The Phillies met with a 5-2 defeat in opening a series with Cincinnati. After Walter Johnson fell victim to the Tigers in the first part of a double-header by 12 to 9, Coveleskie pitched the Senators to a 1-to-0 victory in the same game, which was called on account of darkness in the sixth inning.

The Red Sox weakened the St. Louis lead on third place by handing them a double shut-out, 2-0 and 4-0. As the Tigers drew an even break with Washington, Detroit edged to within one and one-half games of first place.

Quinn held the White Sox to seven hits while Philadelphia turned in a 6-3 victory in the final game of the clubs this season. In the series with Chicago, the Athletics have won fourteen games and lost eight.

The Yanks won the final game of a series from the Indians, 5-0.

A WIN FOR TATE

BARNARDO BOYS MAKING GOOD IN AUSTRALIA NOW

Medical Director of London
Organization Regrets
Canada's Decision
Age Limit on Immigrants Has Stopped Barnardo Work Entirely in Dominion

Regret that Canada had seen fit to stop the immigration of boys under fourteen years of age into this country, was voiced by Dr. Albert Carless, medical director of the Barnardo Homes, and a leading surgeon in London, arriving yesterday as a passenger on board R.M.S. Aorangi. Dr. and Mrs. Carless departed here and are registered at the Empress Hotel for a brief period before going East.

"Only the very best of our boys and girls, mentally and physically, are sent from England," stated Dr. Carless to press representatives as the Aorangi lay at the wharf last evening.

The edict of the Federal Government, continued Dr. Carless, was a blow at thirty-seven years of Barnardo operation in Canada. Most of the boys sent to this country in former years had been under that age, he stated, and the placing of an age limit at fourteen shut off almost in full the Barnardo immigration.

In Australia, continued the eminent surgeon, the Barnardo setting had been continued for three years, and in that time the boys had made names for themselves by their ready willingness to work and capacity to get ahead.

Australia, he intimated, received the Barnardo youths with open arms. In the last forty years no less than 30,000 boys had been settled in British Dominions, and were making good, concluded Dr. Carless, who added that Canada had always been considered a land of wonderful opportunity for the Barnardo boys.

Under the present policy of the Barnardo directors 600 boys are prepared and fitted for emigration every year. These are placed in British possessions, going to positions made for them in advance. An overwhelming majority of youthful emigrants make good, and soon become a valuable asset to the country of their adoption, it is stated.

Dr. Albert Carless is emeritus professor of surgery at King's College, London, and was a leading man in his profession before he gave up practice to devote his whole time to the Barnardo work.

Other passengers on board the big motorship included E. M. Lawton, U.S. Consul-General at Sydney, who with Mrs. Lawton is en route to Washington, D.C., on sixty days' leave. The U.S. consul had warm praise for the manner in which the American naval visit was received.

BOA CONSTRUCTOR GETS WORST OF IT WHEN HE PLANS MEAL OF LONGSHOREMAN

New York, Sept. 18.—Proof that snakes do not wait till sundown to die was given when six longshoremen here had a six-foot boa-constructor to death in broad daylight. The men rained blows on it with shovels when it attacked one of their number, Patrick Rogers of No. 1009 Bloomfield Street, Hoboken, on the Scandinavian-American Line pier at Seventeenth Street, Hoboken.

Rogers was working among bales of rags on the pier when he saw the snake, coiled up and watching him from behind one of the bales. It and the complement of the warships fended at Antipodean points. The visit led to a new understanding and appreciation which could not help but be beneficial and lead to warmer friendships, he said.

Turning to the mercantile situation Mr. Lawton stated 1,100 American ships maintained branch offices in Sydney alone, and trade relations with Australia were of the best. The difficulty, he stated, was to find products for reciprocal trade. The Henry Ford interests, operating through their Canadian representatives, are pushing to completion the vast undertaking of assembly plants and distributing stations in Australia. The new Sidney bridge, building now by the Dorman, Long Company, is making headway with excavations for both approaches of the big span nearing completion. The work will cost $25,000,000, and will take over six years to complete, connecting North Sydney with the main city.

Henri Verbruggen, director of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, was a passenger on the Aorangi, returning from a visit to his three sons in Australia. One son, Dr. Adrien Verbruggen, is established in practice at Sydney, while Philip and Marcel Verbruggen, his two remaining sons, are ranching in the northern territories. Henri Verbruggen will stay a few days at Vancouver, where he is to be met by Madame Verbruggen, and will then leave for Minneapolis. This fall the Minneapolis Orchestra will be re-organized, and may undertake an Australian tour next year.

George Wood, diminutive London comedian, occupied a cabin-de-luxe room on the Aorangi, returning from a successful Australian tour.

Four feet in height and of a cheerful disposition, Mr. Wood, who is better known as "Georgie," was lavishly with his whimsical talents while en route to this coast.

The Aorangi brought a large passenger list, with her accommodation, large as it is, nearly taxed to take care of the travel northbound at this season of the year.

PERCENTAGE OF TOP GRADE WHEAT IS HIGH

Half of 16,000 Cars Inspected
Graded No. 1 Northern

Winnipeg, Sept. 18.—Out of 16,000 cars of Western wheat inspected to date on both railways, approximately 8,000 have graded No. 1 Northern according to statistics issued here. The remaining half of the inspection included approximately 4,000 which graded No. 2 and about 3,000 graded No. 3. The rest were of special grades.

For the first sixteen days of September, the total grain marketed in the Western provinces over both railways reached $5,340,034 bushels.

made for him, Rogers reports, but he dodged back and before it could turn date on both railways, approximately 8,000 have graded No. 1 Northern according to statistics issued here.

The reptile was stunned, but Rogers took no chances and called five husky longshoremen into action. A terrific assault with shovels soon left the constructor dead as a door-nail.

Steamship line officials believe the snake was brought in on the liner Frederick VII, which docked two weeks ago with a cargo of rags from India.

Yokohama Maru Out

The N.Y.K. liner Yokohama Maru will arrive at 4 p.m. to-day from mainland ports, to sail at 5:30 p.m. for the Orient. She has a good cargo loaded at Seattle.

ADMIRAL LINE READY WITH FALL SCHEDULE SAILINGS

Dorothy Will Operate in Twice
Monthly Service Opposite
Ruth and Emma

Ruth and Emma Alexander
Will Give Weekly Sailings,
Turn About

The Fall and Winter schedule of the Admiral Line Steamships is now fixed and will be put into effect gradually affecting three vessels calling here.

On October 3 the Ruth Alexander will take up her new sailing, to be followed by the Emma Alexander on October 15; while the Dorothy Alexander will go over on the altered schedule on October 18.

When all three boats are operating on the new plan there will be sailing from Seattle via Victoria for the South every Thursday and also every alternate Monday. North-bound boats will arrive every Monday and alternate Thursdays.

Under the new plan the Admiral liners Ruth and Emma will leave Seattle at 5 p.m. on Thursdays, taking week about, arriving here at 10 p.m. and sailing at 11 p.m. for the South. On alternate Mondays the Dorothy Alexander will arrive here under the same conditions and sail for the South at the same hour.

Arrivals on Mondays will be at 10 p.m. from San Francisco, for the Emma and the Ruth, and at 10 p.m. on alternate Thursdays for the Dorothy.

The altered schedule will go into effect on the dates mentioned, each vessel meanwhile working around to the point where she can leave Seattle on her Winter time.

PLANNING TO BRING MANY NEW SETTLERS

Hudson's Bay Company
Forms New Organization to Aid Immigration

Edmonton, Sept. 18.—Optimistic of the future of Canada and fully conversant with the resources and needs of the West, the Hudson's Bay Company will launch in 1926, under the direction of Governor Charles V. Sale, an organization to assist in the settlement of Western Canada. A new company will be formed to be known as the Hudson's Bay Company Overseas Settlement Limited.

Announcement to this effect was made here yesterday by G. W. Allan, K.C., of Winnipeg, who is visiting the company's stores throughout the West.

Mr. Allan, who is head of the Hudson's Bay Company in Canada, added that the company was undertaking in co-operation with important steamship companies, having ramifications throughout Great Britain and Europe, the formation of a new company to deal with immigration. The organization will be in operation early next year.

COMMANDER IS RETIRED FROM CIVIL DUTIES

Former Secretary to Admiral du Chair to Visit Wife's
Home at New Westminster

New South Wales Has Naval Governor After Lapse of Eighteen Years

Commander Duncan Grant, R.N., C.B.E., retiring secretary to Admiral Sir Dudley du Chair, Governor of New South Wales, was a passenger on board the R.M.S. Aorangi, arriving yesterday afternoon from the Antipodes. Commander Grant, accompanied by Mrs. Grant and infant child, will spend a few days at Vancouver and New Westminster before routing East through Canadian ports to sail via New York for London.

Commander Grant served with distinction in the Royal Navy during the war, and was decorated by shell fire in the closing naval engagements. For the last eighteen months he has been acting in the capacity of secretary to Sir Admiral du Chair, but is now returning home, and will reside in Buenos Aires.

Impaired hearing, due to war affliction, led to the relinquishing of his civil post in New South Wales, stated Commander Grant to The Times on board yesterday.

Mrs. Grant was formerly Miss Moggridge, born and raised in New Westminster. The party are now on their way to renew acquaintances in that city.

Commander Grant recalled, in passing, the associations of the Governorship of New South Wales. The first naval Governor was Sir Harry Rawson, uncle of the present incumbent, Sir Dudley du Chair, whose appointment formed the second from naval ranks in eighteen years, and was a very popular choice.

New Zealand, states Commander Grant, is alive to the needs of naval protection, and takes a keen interest in both angles of the naval programme, ships and men. Commander and Mrs. Grant will spend a week or two days on this coast before leaving for New York to sail for England.

EMPRESS OF ASIA SAILS FOR ORIENT

Outbound for the Orient with 350 passengers and a good cargo, the C.P.R. S.S. Empress of Asia arrived here at 5:30 p.m. yesterday from Vancouver and sailed at 7 p.m. after taking on mails here. The Empress of Canada is due in from the Orient on Monday next.

CAPT. E. ALTHAM TO GIVE ADDRESS ON NAVAL OUTLOOK

Representative of London
Morning Post Will Visit Here
With English Journalists

Capt. E. Altham, C.B., R.N., of The London Morning Post, is touring Canada with a party of English journalists and will address a public meeting under the auspices of the Victoria branch of the Navy League of Canada, at the Empress Hotel at 8 p.m., on Monday next, September 21.

The party are the guests of the president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and will be accompanied by a large number of naval and military officials. Capt. Altham is a publicist of avoiding lunches, dinners and official receptions, being chiefly concerned with gathering material for the daily articles of their respective papers. The Victoria branch of the Navy League, however, has been able to induce Capt. Altham to address a public meeting under its auspices.

Capt. Altham is an excellent speaker. He will deal with the naval outlook of the Empire from a journalist's point of view and his remarks will be supported by years of experience as a naval officer.

A fine musical programme is being arranged for the evening by the boys' naval brigade band.

MARINE NOTES

The Ss. Nielsa Nelson sailed at noon for Vancouver, after taking on over 1,000,000 feet of lumber here. She will complete at Fraser River mills.

The Loch Monar of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Line is reported in Canadian wireless for an 270 miles south of Tatooch. She is bound for Vancouver with U.K. freights.

The Dorothy Alexander cleared at 11 o'clock last night on her scheduled run south. Eighty-four passengers embarked at this point. The Emma Alexander, northbound, docked at 9:30 p.m. and sailed at 1 o'clock this morning for Seattle.

MANY PASSENGERS TRAVEL NORTH ON THE MS. AORANGI

Canadian-Australian Liner
Ran Clear of Storm Off
Oregon Coast

Running unexpectedly out of a storm moving eastward off the Oregon coast, R.M.S. Aorangi made port at 3 p.m. yesterday from Australian ports. Capt. Robert Crawford reported a fine run, with the blow off the coast here the only incident experienced in crossing. Emerging from the storm zone the Aorangi forged ahead in calm waters for the remainder of her trip.

From Melbourne, Sydney, Auckland and other points in the Antipodes the big motorship of the Canadian-Australian line brought a large passenger list and a good cargo. Some 430 passengers made the voyage, 230 in her first class cabins, 120 second class, and 80 third class. Thirty bags of mail for Victoria and 300 for U.S. points were set ashore here.

The Aorangi sailed at 5 p.m. for Vancouver for her terminal discharge. Fifty-two passengers and thirty tons of cargo were set ashore here. Capt. Crawford stated ships of the line experienced no difficulty at Australian ports due to the fact that the unofficial strike of seamen is confined to vessels of U.K. registry. Many such, he said, were laid up in Australian ports, but the situation appeared to be easing down considerably.

As usual at this time of the year northbound cargo offerings were light, though passenger travel is holding well. Outbound again on her southern run the motorship will have a full cargo and capacity passenger list.

The New, Easy Way to Have Beautiful Waxed Floors and Linoleum

THE new, easy way to wax linoleum is with Johnson's Liquid Wax, applied with a Johnson Wax Mop and polished with a Weighted Brush.

JOHNSON'S POLISHING WAX

Your linoleum will look more beautiful—clean much easier—and last years longer if you polish it occasionally with Johnson's Liquid Wax. It brings out the pattern and color—protects linoleum from wear and imparts a beautiful, dry, dirt-repellent surface which washes off like a piece of glass. Johnson's Liquid Wax is recommended by all the leading manufacturers of linoleum.

Waxed floors, besides being the most beautiful and distinctive, have many practical advantages. They are, by far, the most economical—they do not show scratches or heel prints—are not slippery—and traffic spots can easily be re-waxed without going over the entire floor. Johnson's Liquid Wax is a complete finish and polish for floors of all kinds—wood, linoleum, rubber, tile, marble, etc.

MINE DISPUTE

THE OIL COUNTRY Government Asked to Make Interpretation of New Wage Agreement

London, Sept. 18.—The wage dispute between the British coal miners and owners, which only a few weeks ago threatened to culminate in a nationwide strike, again has been referred to Downing Street for mediation.

During the last crisis Premier Baldwin averted trouble by guaranteeing a subsidy to the mine owners to enable them to continue to pay the present wages of their workers for another nine months.

Now a different interpretation of this settlement has caused another disagreement. A meeting between Government representatives and the operators and miners became deadlocked over an understanding of the terms of the agreement, and the miners have decided to take the matter to the Government.

It is understood the miners allege the operators are infringing on their agreement not to cut the wages of the men.

MOOSE JAW BENEFITS BY NEW GRAIN RATES

Saskatoon, Sept. 18.—Moose Jaw alone, among the principal shipping centres of Saskatchewan and Alberta, received all it was entitled to in the new freight rates on export grain for shipment to the British Columbia Coast filed Tuesday in compliance with the order of the Board of Railway Commissioners requiring equalization of rates West with those in effect to Port William, according to Charles Moon, freight expert for the Quaker Oats Company here.

Next to Moose Jaw, Edmonton fares best, that city getting equal rates west with Calgary, although the latter is 150 miles closer to Vancouver. Comparing the distances to Vancouver of the main shipping centres with points on the main line of the C.P.R., equally distant from Port William, Mr. Moon contends that Saskatoon is entitled to a rate of twenty-five cents per 100 pounds instead of twenty-seven cents; Regina, twenty-five cents instead of twenty-six cents; Calgary, eighteen cents instead of twenty-one cents; Edmonton, twenty cents instead of twenty-one cents.

NEWS FROM HOME

In her mail from the States one morning, Patricia received a letter from Lila.

They had corresponded at intervals ever since the beginning of the strange life of Madge and Patricia and Cartwright at Madame de Marzel's villa.

At first, Lila had told little. She had expressed warm affection for Madge, but there had been an undertone of bitterness and disillusionment, which made Patricia's heart ache. She knew how the girl was suffering over the fall of her idol, and the destruction of a happy, secure existence which had been hers to expect.

But little by little, a ray of hope had crept into Lila's letters. She in-sinuated of youth, the buoyancy that will not easily down, was working a change. Lila was beginning to forget her sister's treachery and the bitterness of the scandal that had reared her life for a time. Under the wise guidance of her grandmother, she was finding herself again.

The letter which Patricia received that morning bubbled with happiness. It sparkled like the sunlight sea that she could glimpse through the opened casements of the breakfast room.

No one was down so early—Madame de Marzel was in the garden tending her beloved flowers—so Patricia pushed aside the coffee service that the old French servant brought, and gave her complete attention to Lila's news from home.

"You'll never guess the wonderful thing that's happened—or maybe you will," because—Grandmother says you're very wise. My dear, I'm engaged! To the most marvelous boy in the world! Cela va sans dire, n'est-ce pas? (You may know I'm crazy when I try to remember my French!)

"My fiancé's name is Willoughby Creighton. His family is English and rightfully aristocratic. They make their home in South America, where Willoughby's father controls about all the exporting business there is, I guess, judging from all the money they have. They fairly reek with it. But that doesn't matter a bit to me. I'd still want to marry him if he was only a crossing sweeper and I had to cook and wash dishes and make my own hats and turn last year's frocks. That shows how crazy I am about him, doesn't it?"

"We met last Spring—I hope this story of my romance won't bore you, but I simply have to tell everybody who will listen. He had just finished Harvard and he was going back to Rio to join his family (you see he's the only son and is going to carry on the business and be the head of the family and all that). But he met me at the Prom—I'd gone up with Dave Bassett—you remember my nice old Dog Tray who's been faithful since I wore pinafores?"

"Well, it was love at first sight for Will and me. We became engaged a few weeks after. He didn't go back to Rio, won't go, in fact, until I go with him. So we're going to be married right away. His family is coming on to meet Grandmother and me—they're frightfully formal and conventional—and the wedding will take place as soon as they arrive and we'll all go to South America together. Isn't that heavenly? I'm absolutely wild with joy!"

"Lila's handwriting changed at this point a trifle, as if she were writing slowly and choosing her words carefully. Just one thing worries me, Patricia."

SCHOOL DAYS By DWIG

M'sieu Cartwright is glaring at his back.

Patricia's glance roved to Cartwright, sitting in the shade on the higher terrace.

"Mr. Cartwright looks strangely peaceful to me. He has ceased to frown for the first time in three days."

The little Marquise stole a glance too.

"C'est vrai," she whispered mischievously. "It is relief to see on his face. Ah, one cannot play the lower all the time, when one is no longer young."

One desire moments with one's slippers and one's books, even one's pipe—a sort of spiritual deshabille as well.

"I think Madge likes Mr. Patterson very much," Patricia said, bending over her embroidery. "I am glad. He is an excellent influence for her."

Madame de Marzel looked at the bowed head shrewdly and shook her own.

"She more than likes him, ma petite. Surely you are not blind. She is going to captivate him, if she can."

Patricia smiled.

"You think she can?"

"Mais non, ma chere. He is already captivated."

"Really? He is engaged, or in love with some one?" Patricia asked, surprised.

"Je le sais. I am sure of it. But I say nothing. All in good time, he will confide it himself to you."

"Hardly to me," Patricia laughed, snapping off a silk. "We're the most formal acquaintances."

"Eh, bien, we shall see," promised the little Marquise.

A brilliant luncheon crowd thronged the Hotel de l'Europe when Madge and Patterson arrived. The morning bathing hour was just over and, clad again in smart togs, the fashionable world adjourned to its wide balconies.

"I'd better order a table at once if we've any hopes of being served," Patterson remarked as they ascended the steps. "Shall you wait here, or do you prefer to come with me?"

Madge's lovely, restless eyes swept the crowd.

"I'll remain here," she decided. "I see a man yonder that I know. Look he's coming to join us. He'll stay with me while you order."

The man who approached was obviously Latin, sleek, dark, suave, immaculately, if a trifle exaggeratedly, dressed. Madge presented him as a Senor Valera. She had met him frequently when she was with Cartwright. He belonged to a set which was willing to accept them, a set that was mostly made up of adventurers, dandies, women, men without definite occupation or credentials, pleasant, brilliant at times, always easy—but not a set with which either Madge or Cartwright had had contact before.

The man looked after Patterson with narrowed eyes and turned back to Madge with a smile both admiring and insinuating.

"A new admirer, Senora? Another American? You do not care for foreigners?"

"I knew Mr. Patterson in America," she replied, slyly a trifle haughty. "Old friends are best, is it not so?"

"But not old admirers," he added softly. "And Senor Cartwright? Is the Senora thinking of changing her allegiance? If so, may I hope that I may be considered for the post of successor?"

With anger searing her face and brow and humiliation at the insult blinding her eyes with hot tears, Madge turned from him and fairly ran into the crowded foyer of the hotel.

ONCE UPON A TIME THE GIANT'S THREE GOLDEN HAIRS x By W. J. ENRIGHT.

WHEN THE GIANT WAS SNORING SOUNDLY THE GRANDMOTHER PLUCKED ANOTHER HAIR. THE GIANT GAVE A GREAT START AND ROARED, "WELL! DREAMING AGAIN! SUPPOSE, WHAT WAS IT THIS TIME?"

DREAMT OF A WONDERFUL APPLE TREE THAT ONCE BORE GOLDEN APPLES BUT WHICH NOW HADN'T EVEN A LEAF. WHAT DO YOU SUPPOSE DID THAT? OH, ONLY AN OLD WOMAN SHAVEN AT THE ROOTS. IF IT WERE KILLED IT WOULD BEAR AGAIN. IF YOU WANT IT ME AGAIN I'LL BOX YOUR EARS."

BUT, NO SOONER WAS HE ASLEEP THAN SHE PLUCKED THE THIRD HAIR AND THE GIANT JUMPED UP WITH A GREAT YELL AND WOULD HAVE PUNISHED HER BUT SHE TOLD HIM THE DREAM SHE HAD HAD OF THE POOR OLD FERRYMAN.

HE IS FORCED TO FERRY PEOPLE BACK AND FORTH DAY AND NIGHT. SHE SCOBED, "AND NO ONE COMES TO RELEASE HIM. HUH! SAID THE GIANT, ALL HE HAS TO DO IS PLACE THE OAR IN THE HANDS OF SOME ONE ELSE AND THE NEWCOMER WILL HAVE TO BE FERRYMAN."

THREE DETROIT MEN WERE ELECTROCUTED

Deaths Accidental; One of Them Killed in Saving Fifty Children

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 18.—Three men were killed and a fourth severely burned when a guy wire fell across a high tension wire here yesterday.

One of the men was killed in saving the lives of fifty children. The wire was across the sidewalk and children were walking it, not heeding the man's cries. He then ran forward to lift the wire from the ground and was instantly killed.

A second man met death attempting to pull a fellow worker to safety. Another was severely burned in a similar attempt.

ABANDONED INDIAN VILLAGES FOUND

Alaska Natives Left Settlements Fifty Years Ago Because of Epidemic

Seattle, Sept. 18.—Traces of Indian villages, ravaged by a mysterious epidemic which caused the inhabitants to abandon them fifty or seventy-five years ago were discovered by a party of geologists in the interior of Alaska this summer. Gerald Fitzgerald of Washington, D.C., declared here last night.

Fitzgerald headed a party sent to the North by the United States Geological Survey, which reported the discovery of traces of all on the northern slope of the Alaskan Peninsula.

The deserted villages were on the banks of the Colville River in a valley called by natives the "Valley of the Winds." Huts, well preserved, cooking utensils, strange pottery, bits of sleds and other traces of human habitation were found.

Natives of the region surrounding the valley seemed to have a superstitious fear of entering the district and refused to accompany the geologists, Fitzgerald said.

How to make DUTCH PICKLE

1 quart green cucumbers, 1 small cabbage, 1 quart onions, 3 red peppers, 1 quart green tomatoes, 1 large cauliflower, 1/2 cup salt.

Chop all fine and pour on enough hot water to cover. Let stand half an hour and drain, then make a dressing of the following:

8 tablespoons Colman's D.S.F. Mustard, 3 cups sugar, 1 tea-spoonful turmeric, 1 cup flour.

Mix with a little vinegar until smooth, add mixture to 2 quarts vinegar stirring constantly over fire, until thickened, then pour over vegetables.

STANDARD PRICES CAMPAIGN OBJECT

President of Dominion Retailers Addresses Meeting Here

Opening a Dominion wide campaign for a fair trading policy to establish a common resale price on nationally advertised trade marked goods, J. T. Crowder of Vancouver, president of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada, addressed a representative audience of retailers in various lines of business at the Chamber of Commerce last night.

In the course of a vigorous attack on price cutting Mr. Crowder pointed out that there was a movement on foot to form a board of representative of manufacturing, wholesale and retail organizations who would discuss matters of importance to each of the branches of business they represented to arrive at the most satisfactory decision to all three.

Amplifying his objective as outlined in the course of an interview in yesterday's Times, Mr. Crowder said that he found throughout Canada, especially in the West, all manufacturers were unanimous in their desire to adopt the scheme proposed, and the issue, "price maintenance," or "price adjustment" would limitlessly benefit manufacturers, wholesalers, retailers and the general public. By the term "price maintenance," he did not mean to imply price fixing or keeping up prices; it meant the setting of a suitable price by the manufacturer to the best possible advantage.

Special reference was made to the problems of grocers, booksellers and fire dealers, trades in which price cutting is rampant now, it was explained.

Negro in Ohio Tells Police He Killed Young Girl

Cincinnati, Ohio, Sept. 18.—James Henry Lewis, thirty-eight, negro, last night confessed to County Prosecutor Charles S. Bell that he had killed Edna Bassett, fourteen-year-old daughter of an Addison farmer.

In the presence of several county officials, the negro, who was shot in the chest by a party of hunters, had been arrested, told how he had waylaid the girl, robbed and attacked her and finally, how he beat her so severely that she died several hours later.

MILITARY FUNERAL GIVEN CAMPAIGNER

"Last Post" Sounded at Graveside of Late George Richard Day

With full military honors, the remains of the late Mr. George Day were laid to rest yesterday afternoon in the Royal Oak burial park. Service was held at the Sands Funeral Parlors, under the direction of the British Campaigners' Association, in which the deceased was one of the oldest members, by the Rev. F. C. Chapman, chaplain of the Esquimalt Garrison. By permission of Brigadier-General J. M. Ross, a firing party from Princess Patricia's regiment and a gun carriage were in attendance, and at the graveside the service was concluded with thrills and the bugler sounding the "Last Post."

A large number of friends and fellow members of the British Campaigners' Association were in attendance at the parlors, among whom were Major H. E. Christie, Lieut.-Col. Lorne Ross, Beaumont Ross, J. Hinchcliffe, M.P.P., and Capt. R. Matheson, Reeve of Esquimalt.

The pall-bearers were W. J. Edwards, R. H. Nunn, T. Viggo, W. Johnson, S. J. Pomeroy, P. Conley. Beautiful floral tributes were sent by Mrs. L. Arman, niece of the late Mr. Day, Mrs. E. Smith, Mrs. Trevor, Mr. and Mrs. James Dodd, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Day and one from the Esquimalt municipality.

The late Mr. Day left but one relative in Victoria, a niece, Mrs. Larman, Johnson Street, and a daughter, Mrs. Ada Jarrett, in Mitchell Street, England. He had resided in Victoria for the last twenty-five years, having been employed by the Esquimalt Municipality for many years.

Two Jail Inquiries Now in Illinois

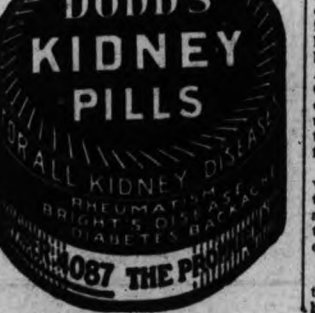

Chicago, Sept. 18.—The Federal investigators looking into the laxity of Cook County jail here, where Terry Druggan and Frank Lake, rum runners, were held, to-day commenced to sift charges by newspapers that John Torrio, henchman of the late Dion O'Banion, Chicago gang leader now serving a year's imprisonment on a federal charge of violation of the prohibition laws, enjoyed similar "privileges" at the Waukegan jail.

Insane Man Set Fires in Montreal

Montreal, Sept. 18.—The series of fires during the last month in the Eastern section of Montreal, which caused great damage to property and involved tremendous risk to human life, was the work of a maniac who has just been returned to Long Point Asylum, from which he had escaped, Commissioner L. E. Quinn stated in court here yesterday. The fire commissioner said he proposed to have the man committed to a penitentiary for the insane.

The man, he said, had been convicted two years ago for setting fire to a cargo steamship and was later adjudged insane and committed to the asylum. Early this summer he escaped from that institution.

OVER TWO HUNDRED WORKERS ARE BUSY

Planning For World Service Exhibition Next Wednesday

The last few days of preparations for the World Service Exhibition which will be opened in Christ Church Cathedral Memorial Hall next Wednesday afternoon, September 23, find well over two hundred workers engaged in gathering articles and exhibits for the ten courts of service around which the exhibition will be centred.

Courts of Service have been arranged to represent the Ministry of the Gospel throughout the world, ecclesiastical art, education, social welfare, industrial pursuits and vocational training, religious education in the home and Sunday School, and other departments of church life and work.

A new mystical play, "The Gate of Vision," will be presented in the large auditorium on Wednesday and Friday evenings, September 23 and 25, by a company of young players, many of whom took part in the mystery plays, "Eager Heart" and "A Mirror for Souls," when last produced in Victoria. On Saturday afternoon, September 26, children of St. Matthias' Junior Auxiliary will present the pageant, "Heralds of the King." Both the mystical play and the children's pageant have as their central theme the arousing of the spirit of Christian fellowship and service among young and old.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS BAZAAR

The bazaar, at the east end of the Memorial Hall, will be the scene of a League of Nations bazaar. In this, each of ten stalls and departments will be decorated to represent a country in the League of Nations, and a five minutes' address on the work of the League of Nations will be given at a certain hour daily. Articles for sale in these stalls have been solicited, as it is hoped that from the proceeds of the sale it will be possible to remove the only existing debt on the cost of furnishing the Memorial Hall. Stalls have been constructed for the sale of articles of plain and fancy work, woolen goods, dolls, toys, home cooking and candy, and miscellaneous articles of all kinds, varying in price from five cents to fifty cents.

Some interesting exhibits have been secured for the Court of Service in the Ministry of the Gospel, which will tell the story of the growth of Christianity from its birth in Palestine to its triumph in South and North America. English, American and Canadian societies have sent exhibits for the courts of social welfare, religious education, and other departments.

CONVENERS OF COURTS

OAK BAY WILL NOT ERECT NEW PARK BUILDING THIS YEAR

Question of Dressing Quarters at Oak Bay Park to be Voted Upon by Ratepayers

The Oak Bay Council at their meeting held last night in the Municipal Hall voted down a motion to erect a new clubhouse and dressing room at the Oak Bay Park at a cost of approximately $1,000. The question will be submitted to the ratepayers in the form of a by-law as early as possible.

Considerable business was transacted at last night's meeting of the council.

Councillor Money, in pressing for the building of new dressing quarters at the Oak Bay park, stated that it was a dire necessity and moved that a new building with all the facilities of a clubhouse be erected, the motion being seconded by Councillor Mearns.

Councillor Wilson was opposed to the scheme. Councillors Mearns and Money voted in favor, while Reeve Anson and Councillors Ashe, Wilmond and Hayward threw their weight against the motion.

A circular was received from Robert Baird, inspector of municipalities, in regard to the question of city manse, the letter requested the council's opinion on the matter.

It was referred to a committee composed of Councillors Mearns, Money and Wilson.

The council passed a motion in favor of holding the municipal election in December instead of the middle of January, thus allowing the new council to take office at the first of the year. The Government will be advised to this effect.

Five resolutions for changes in the Municipal Act were referred to the Union of British Columbia Municipalities, which will hold a convention in Victoria commencing September 23, for their approval.

Whereas the drive along the waterfront in Oak Bay municipality known as Beach Drive and Shore Road is extensively used by tourists and the residents of southern Vancouver Island, application be made to the Minister of Public Works to classify the said drive as a secondary highway, was the subject of a resolution passed.

The Good Roads League will be asked to endorse this application. The council passed the by-law authorizing the sale of the small piece of ground on Gonzales Heights to the Dominion Government for the price of $1 for the erection of the memorial to the memory of the navigators of the eighteenth century.

The acting mayor referred to the solicitors for complete redrafting.

The Victoria Grass Hockey Club was granted permission to use Oak Bay Park, providing they reach a satisfactory agreement with the Oak Bay Athletic Club.

Reeve Anson, Councillor Edwards and Municipal Clerk R. F. Blandy were appointed delegates to represent Oak Bay at the Union of British Columbia Municipalities convention at the Good Roads convention. At the Municipal Officers' convention, Mr. Blandy will be the sole representative. Chief Symes was elected to represent Oak Bay at the Fire Chiefs' convention in Seattle.

NEW LAND SYSTEM IN GREAT BRITAIN

Lloyd George Says Liberal Committee Recommends State Farm Credits

Exeter, Eng., Sept. 18 (Canadian Press Cable).—Opening the Liberal land campaign here yesterday, Mr. Lloyd George said the unofficial committee of inquiry over which he had presided and which had been sitting two years, had concluded that it was useless to attempt to develop agriculture on the basis of the existing system of agriculture tenure was preserved.

Landlordism had broken down, he said, and the committee's report which would not be published until the middle of October, proposed that the state should resume ownership of the land for the purpose of compensating on the basis of present building value by annual payments.

There should be state credit and state guaranteed security for those who used the land. The annuities to be paid to the present owners must allow of a living wage for the workers and an adequate return for the good cultivators.
